Arts Society Presents Concert
The Tar Heel Fine Arts Society will present in concert Edmond Karlsrud and The Men of Song on Saturday evening, March 12 at 8 p.m. in the Kenan Memorial Auditorium in Kenansville. This is an additional concert for the 1982-83 season and is open to all persons who currently hold a 1982-83 season membership ticket.
Edmond Karlsrud, the popular American bass-baritone, is one of the most outstanding and experienced recitalists of our day. Appearances other than concerts and opera include performances on all the major television and radio networks and in the theatre, nightclubs, oratorio and with symphony orchestras. His extensive operatic repertoire lists over 90 roles in five languages, and in addition to the Metropolitan Opera, he has appeared with the opera companies of New Orleans, Atlanta and Seattle. Karlsrud has also gained recognition as a producer and director of such highly successful attractions as the Karlsrud Chorale, the Men of Song, the Rondoliers, the Cosmopolitans, the New York Sextet, the Concertmen, and Five on Stage.

The Men of Song quartet has been rated by many critics as the finest concert quartet ever assembled. In addition to enormously popular concert appearances throughout the country, the Men of Song have performed on television, radio, records and in the movies. Each member brings to the ensemble the benefit of his own excellent individual musical background and professional experience.

Plan now to enjoy this concert. A limited number of season tickets will be available at the door.
