THE TOOTHACHE MYSTERY - The Trial of the Dental Health Six. In observance of Dental Health Month, the third grade class of Marie Bunn at Pink Hill School presented a play, The Toothache Mystery. When the curtain opens, the clerk, Jury, Pete Good, Jerry Jason and Terry Teenager are in their places. The judge enters and everyone rises. The judge strikes the desk with his gavel. Jason tells the judge that his client got a very bad toothache and in the State of Prevention, that is against the law. In his opinion she should have been protected. He charged that the prisoners conspired to let this bad thing happen to her. In conclusion, the prisoners were declared "Not Guilty." Terry Teenager was convicted because no one but herself was responsible for not brushing her teeth, visiting the dentist regularly and eating proper foods avoiding sugar in snacks. Sue Ann Smith

Authentic Log Cabin

The third grade social studies class of Nancy Wilson at Pink Hill Elementary School is busy working on various projects.

Sue Ann Smith with the assistance of her grandfather, James Puckett of LaGrange, has created a realistic log cabin. According to Sue Ann, "I chose to make a log cabin because early pioneers had to use logs to make their homes. I knew that I could not make my cabin all alone. I am lucky that my grandfather can make many things. He helped me make my log cabin. He took a board and cut it into strips. He sanded these into logs. Then the logs were used to make the cabin. The top of the cabin will open to be able to arrange furniture. The door is also made of logs. This log cabin will be something that I will always treasure. When I am grown, I will remember that my Granddaddy Puckett loved me very much because he was so interested in helping me with my school project."

Sue Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Route 2, Pink Hill.
