

THE PINK HILL REVIEW

"Serving Pink Hill, Deep Run, Albertson, Beulaville, And Their Surrounding Areas"

VOL. 5 NO. 12

KENANSVILLE, NC 28349

MARCH 17, 1983

DEEP RUN FOOD CENTER, formerly Howard's Food Center in Deep Run, is open under new ownership. The store was purchased recently by Odom and Evelyn Futrell. Prior to entering the grocery business, the Futrells were engaged in farming for 12 years. They invite everyone to come to Deep Run and shop where they carry a complete line of groceries and meats and do custom grinding also. Shown above, left to right, Mary Langston, cashier; Jay Murphy, meat market manager, Odom Futrell, owner, Duane Futrell, son, Evelyn Futrell, owner, Mark Moody, produce department; and Ruth Atkinson, Meat department.

Liberty Festival Variety Show

The Liberty Festival is sponsoring a Spring Variety Show to be held on Saturday night, March 26 at 7 p.m. in the Pink Hill School auditorium.

Doc's Magic Show, featuring Bill Robinson from Jacksonville, will do a 30-minute show that promises to be entertaining and appealing to both adults and children present.

Also appearing will be Miss Liberty 1982, Ellen Sandlin. This will be Ellen's last performance before a new Miss Liberty is crowned in July 4th festivities. The Junior Miss Liberty, Elizabeth Murphy, will also perform. Also scheduled to appear is the South Lenoir Drama Club presenting a 20-minute play production, and Cecil Burke, an amateur comedian. Admission will be $2 at the door. Children under 12 (accompanied by a parent, only) will be admitted for $1.

The word "crystal" came from a Greek word meaning both ice and rock crystal since the ancients believed that rock crystal was a modified and permanent form of ice.

Pink Hill Town Board Meets

Steve and Rose Jarman appeared before the town board at their recent meeting to grant approval to obtain a license to operate The Keg. The license was granted with Doris Dunn to serve as manager of the business. Final plans on purchasing a new fire truck was tabled until the April meeting. Tom Davis, commissioner, said he would seek another bid for a fire truck.

The decision was made to take the 1973 Ford garbage truck and the 1977 Ford police car to an auction at Kenly after the bids were opened by the commissioners. All the bids were rejected.

In other action, the commission them that the town will pay half of the amount for water and sewer lines. David Vance, public works director, estimated the cost would run from $1,600 to $2,000.

The commissioners also voted to allow Pink Hill citizens to pay their water bills in advance.

An estimate was turned in by the town clerk, Carol Sykes, in the amount of $265 to repair leaks in the roofing. She was requested by the commissioners to seek two additional estimates and to permit the lowest bid the offer to repair the leaks.

Davis commended the public works director, Vance, for an "outstanding job" involving a clean-up effort at the sewer plant.

Town Clerk Sykes reported that delinquent taxes will be advertised beginning May 6. Lester Turner, police chief, reported five DUIs, one possession of drugs, one no-insurance, one improper plates, three wrecks and 15 complaint calls during the month of February.

CHRISTIAN CHAPEL EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS TO MEET

The Christian Chapel Extension Homemakers will meet on Thursday, March 24 at 7:30 p.m. at Christian Chapel Church.

Melissa B. Smith, county extension agent, will present the program on cross stitch. Each club member should bring at least a 7-inch square of 11-count or 14-count fabric, a small cross stitch hoop, a size 24 or 26 needle. Instructions, thread and patterns will be provided by the agent.

MAGNOLIA PUBLIC HEARING

A public hearing concerning the Magnolia depot is set for Thursday, March 31 at 7:30 p.m. at the Magnolia Town Hall. All townspeople and concerned citizens are cordially invited to ask questions and voice their opinions at this meeting.

MUDDY CREEK PROJECT RECEIVES FUNDING - The North Carolina Department of Natural Resources and Community Development presented Duplin County with $47,577.83 to assist in funding the Limestone - Muddy Creek project. The first phase, channel restoration and renovation, of the Muddy Creek project will be complete sometime in mid-1984. Pictured above, left to right, Duplin Soil and Water Conservation director Kenneth Futreal, chairman of the Duplin County Commissioners Bill Costin receiving funds for the Muddy Creek project from Maurice Cook, Soil and Water Conservation Division Director of the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development.

Maximilian I, an Austrian prince, originated the tradition of the diamond engagement ring in 1477. His bride was Mary of Burgundy, whom he had never seen until their marriage.

TO WED - Mrs. Carol J. Hills of Kinston, Route 9, announces the engagement of her daughter, Melesa Dawn Howard to Danny Carlton Byrd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy C. Byrd of Pink Hill, Route 1. An April 3 wedding is planned at the Tanglewood Church of God in Kinston. She is also the daughter of the late Leslie Eugene Howard.

JAMES SPRUNT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT Mrs. Vivian Teachey, left, presents Distinguished Eagle Scout award to

Dr. Walter Jay Thomas Jr. as his wife, Mrs. Joyce Thomas assists.

JSTC Alumni Hosts Ceremony For Distinguished Eagle Scout Award

Relatives, friends and business associates of Dr. Walter Jay Thomas Jr. gathered at James Sprunt Technical College auditorium on Sunday, Feb. 20 to honor him with the presentation of the Distinguished Eagle Scout award. This ceremony was hosted by the James Sprunt Alumni Association. Dr. Carl D. Price, president of JSTC, acted as master of ceremonies. Others on the program included: Rev. Frank Grubbs, pastor, Laniers Chapel Free Will Baptist Church; Paul Petras, district scout executive; James Barr, assistant Scoutmaster, Troop #53; Dixon Hall, instructor at JSTC; David Bray, manager of Swift and Co., Wallace; Mrs. Elizabeth Grant of the Employment Security Commission; Mrs. Vivian Teachey, president of JS Alumni Association; and Rev. Paul Mull, pastor of Cedar Fork Baptist Church. Dr. Thomas was recognized for his accomplishments in the areas of scouting, education, occupation, community, county and regional involvement. He was cited as being the only student at JSTC to progress to the Doctorial level of education. Dr. Thomas was instrumental in the development of the original JSTC Alumni Association and served as its first president.

Dr. Thomas was recognized for his accomplishments in the areas of scouting, education, occupation, community, county and regional involvement. He was cited as being the only student at JSTC to progress to the Doctorial level of education. Dr. Thomas was instrumental in the development of the original JSTC Alumni Association and served as its first president.

Dr. Thomas was recognized for his accomplishments in the areas of scouting, education, occupation, community, county and regional involvement. He was cited as being the only student at JSTC to progress to the Doctorial level of education. Dr. Thomas was instrumental in the development of the original JSTC Alumni Association and served as its first president.

Third Anniversary Celebration

Saturday, March 19th 10 am - 6 pm

Free Gifts Given Away Each Hour
During The Day
Register For Grand Prize

Anniversary Specials

Gerbera Daisy's	DMC Floss
$1.25	4/$1.00
Candelwicking Books	Stenciling Supplies
25% off	25% off

Featuring Folk Art, Tinware, Calico, Country Woodcraft, Silk Flowers, Williamsburg Candles, Craft Supplies, Beautiful Hanging Baskets. Perennials Available.

This That & The Other

Florist & Gift Shoppe

Featuring Unusual Country Accessories

2 mi. n. Pink Hill - Hwy 11 Tel. 568-4528
Lynda W. Stroud - Owner

LIMESTONE SINGERS

The Pink Hill First Baptist Church will hold their regular 4th Sunday night sing on March 27 at 7 p.m. The Limestone Singers will be featured. All area churches are invited to come. There will be no admission charge.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION AT BIG ZION

On Sunday, March 20, the Pastor Aid Club will celebrate their anniversary. Rev. William Anderson of Washington, D.C. will be the guest speaker for the morning service. At 3 p.m., the Male Chorus of Galbraith of Washington, D.C. will render a music program at the Big Zion Church near Kenansville.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Dean Smith of Pink Hill announce the birth of a son, Rodney Dean Smith Jr. on Saturday, March 12, 1983. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Earl "Sheet" Smith of Deep Run and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jones of Pink Hill.

Lenoir School Menus

March 21-25

Monday - hot dog or hot ham & cheese sandwich, vegetable beef soup, fresh fruit or fruit cup, butter cookie
Tuesday - Manager's choice
Wednesday - pizza or combo sandwich, lettuce or tomato or french fries, apple sauce or pears
Thursday - hamburger steak or pork chop, lettuce, fluffy potatoes or corn cobbler, broccoli or apple ring, cake
Friday - spaghetti or rib sandwich, tossed salad or green beans, peach salad or cherry tart, french bread

Teachers Appreciation Week

March 21-25

"TEACHERS SPECIAL"
Mixed green garden for the desk or cut flowers $5.00

Remember that special teacher with a selection from

The Colony House Florist

101 Edwards Ave.
Pink Hill, N.C.
568-4159

Nan's Forever Lite Diet And Exercise Center

Deep Run
568-4765

Now is the time to shape up and lose those unwanted pounds before summer gets here. Look nice in that new bathing suit or that new summer wardrobe. Lose fifteen to twenty pounds in just five weeks on the Forever Lite Diet Program. You can also come and weigh in free. Nan also has a few morning and evening openings in her exercising program. For more information, call - Nan's Forever Lite Diet and Exercising Center - 568-4765, Deep Run.

STARTER & ALTERNATOR SERVICE

25 YEARS EXPERIENCE

- ★ TUNE-UPS ★ BRAKE-WORK
- ★ TIRES ★ BATTERIES
- ★ IGNITION PARTS ★ REPAIR & REBUILD UNITS ★ OFFICIAL INSPECTION STATION
- ★ MINOR REPAIRS

VIDEO GAMES AND POOL TABLE

COME ON IN AND SEE DEMPSEY & MONROE FOR ALL YOUR CAR NEEDS

SMITTY'S CONVENIENT MART AND SERVICE CENTER

PINK HILL PHONE 568-9000