

DCAC Spring Fashion Show Was Dazzling

The evening of fashions and entertainment sponsored by the Duplin County Arts Council recently was a shimmering and shining sight. With colors that shout spring and with talent that represents Duplin's best, the show was a combination of beauty and excitement and grace.

Five area stores showed fashions intermittently with entertainment. Showing contemporary sportswear and bridal clothing for men and women was Cintilly's of Beulaville. As owners Barbara Quinn and Jan Kennedy put it, "The colors are hot, and the lines are lean. Cintilly's has an upbeat assortment of fun-loving, funky fashions." Models for them included Ellen Sandlin, Casandra Raynor, Kate Griffin, Jo Riley, Keneva Hambrick, Kent Evans, Holly Griffin, Lucinda Maready and Micky Quinn.

Kramer's Department Store of Wallace presented a full line of fashions for women and girls, and a handsome Myrle Beringer modeling a classic look for men. With Muriel Offerman coordinating the new spring styles that range from jacket dresses to mini-dresses, Kramer's models were Aimee Watson, Jane Phillips, Judy Mills, Lucille Beach, Dovie Penney, Emily Teachey, Gina Rivenbark, Stacy Livingston and Beringer.

The best in comfortable, classic sportswear and dignified, handsome style was shown by Emma's of Wallace. Models Ellis Henry Townsend, Marguerite Blanchard, Carol Carter and Emily Jessup showed the best spring feminine looks. Ellis Henry coordinated this segment of the show.

Fox's of Wallace brought bright jumpsuits and bouncy polka dot mini-dresses to go along with a variety of other fashions. Having fun in the colorful clothes were models Beverly Hall, Beverly Pesarchick, Shirley Carlton, Nadine Rhodes and Beth Montford. Jan Fox assisted the models from her store.

The finale of fashions was shown by Mary Sanderson Porter of Creations Three in Warsaw. With sparkles and sequins and jewels, Mary's models included Moira Kay, June Bell, Betty Jenkins and Vicki Tharrington. The designer look at its most elegant was the look of Creations Three.

Punctuating the fashion show were the following entertainers: Gary Mitchell, guitarist and vocalist from Ocracoke Island; Rev. Charles Smith, baritone with

Broadway show tunes; Aimee Watson, NC's Junior Miss Charm, tapdancing to "Hev There Good Times"; Moira Kay, Miss Knoxville, Tenn., vocalist; Gina Rivenbark, Duplin's Little Miss, tapdancing to "We're in the Money."

Susan Lawrence Googe was hostess for the evening. She was 1976 Miss North Carolina and 1st runner-up to Miss America. Danny

GRADY RETIRES - Duplin County tax collector Leland Grady was presented a certificate of appreciation by the Duplin commissioners March 21 during their regular board meeting. Grady retired after 13 years of service with Duplin County. Family Needs Are Focus Of Film Series

On Sunday evening, April 24, the Warsaw community will be able to begin participation in an educational and thought-provoking film series called Focus on the Family. Designed and presented by Dr. James Dobson of Waco, Texas, this series touches on a number of areas in marriage and family relationships. All interested persons in the area are urged to participate.

The series will include seven films, each of which will be shown at 7 p.m. at Warsaw Elementary School. There is no charge. The films are being sponsored by the Warsaw Elementary P.T.O., the Warsaw Baptist Church and the Warsaw United Methodist Church.

Dates and film titles are as follows: April 24 - The Strong-willed Child; April 30 - Shaping the Will Without Breaking the Spirit; May 6 - Christian Fathering; May 13 -

Preparing for Adolescence: The Origins of Self-doubt; May 20 - Preparing for Adolescence: Peer Pressure & Sexuality; May 27 - What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew About Women; The Lonely Housewife; and June 5 - What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew About Women; Money, Sex and Children.

Introducing the leading discussion for each film will be area ministers, doctors and guidance specialists. The series is designed in a sequential and developmental package and therefore seeing the whole series is preferable to seeing single films, although that is certainly permissible.

Questions and further information may be directed towards Dr. Mac Thompson, Warsaw Baptist Church; Rev. Jimmy Creech, Warsaw United Methodist Church; and Gerald Yount, Warsaw Elementary School.

tank mix control in a jug

Double-Duty Bicep

It keeps corn clean. Controls both broadleaves and grasses. Nothing beats its performance. Or its convenience. Because you do not waste time mixing herbicide at each fill-up. Tank-mix control—in a jug. Bicep.

You can surface-apply or incorporate it. At the same rate. And one pass gets it down in the soil where it works best. Take some work out of your corn herbicide program this year. Call us for Double-Duty Bicep.
