Southern Lenoir County Lions Club

The Southern Lenoir County Lions Club was organized Tuesday night at the B&S Cafe in Deep Run with Linwood Stroud named president and Gerald Williams elected secretary, Deputy District Governor Bill Moxley of Kinston reported.

The club has 28 members signed up to date and anticipates enrollment of several more before the charter night on May 14. The club will meet at the B&S Cafe on the second and fourth Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m., with the next session slated for April 12.

The Beulaville Lions Club, organized 31 years ago, will sponsor the club in District 31-H. A guiding Lion was appointed to meet with the club during its first year. In attendance were Lions Cecil Miller and Orza Thigpen of the Beulaville. Thigpen will serve as guiding Lion.

The other officers will be selected at the April 12 meeting. There will be a training session for the new leaders to be held prior to charter night. Further plans for the charter program will be announced after the next meeting.

International Representative J.L. Mashburn of Hendersonville has been working with the membership on club formation during the past 30 days. He and Gov. Richard J. Kerr of Atlantic Beach, and Extension Chairman James B. Stocks of New Bern assisted in the organizational session. William D. Moxley, deputy governor, will also be involved in the completion of the organization and charter events. Lion Cecil Young of Hendersonville, extension chairman for District 31-A, also was a guest.

The club is No. 55 in District 31-H, a 14-county area from Benson to Oak Island and Greenville to Mount Olive. It will be part of Zone 10 in Region 3 under Zone Chairman Glenn Bunch of Snow Hill.

It is the second club to be formed in the district this club year. The first was at Newport, which was chartered in November and which has shown steady growth since that time, Governor Kerr stated.

THIRD DAY OF SPRING - but you'd never guess! A blanket of snow covered the area on Thursday night creating the image of a winter wonderland. Above, Bill Turner and Leslie Turner of Park Circle in Pink Hill have constructed an enormous snowman with charcoal features while Max and Beverly Stroud of Route 1, Pink Hill, dressed theirs with pipe arms and hands and a scarf taboot.

I want to commend the work of the Duplin County Arts Council.

There are many agencies and organizations dedicated to improving the quality of life for Duplin County and its citizens and certainly the Arts Council ranks high on that list. It has proven itself worthy of the support of all of the people of Duplin and I want to urge all of our people to respond to its appeal for funds and other assistance.
