North Duplin Presents Hello Dolly

North Duplin High School will present the musical, "Hello, Dolly," April 22 and 23 in the school gymnasium at 8 p.m. The drama is the third annual production directed by the North Duplin band instructor, Brian Hoxie. "Hello, Dolly!" is based on the story, Matchmaker by Thornton Wilder. In the musical, Dolly Levi is hired by Horace Vandergelder to find him a suitable wife. Vandergelder is a well-known half-millionaire. According to Hoxie, the production usually includes as many as 15 songs during the two acts. The musical comedy is sponsored by the North Duplin Band Boosters Club and the high school. Starring in the lead roles of Horace Vandergelder and Dolly Levi are John Lewis and Lynda Walker. John is a junior at North Duplin and has played the lead role in both the previous drama productions at the high school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lewis of Faison. Lynda is a junior at North Duplin and has appeared in both dramas produced at the high school by Hoxie. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derl Walker of Route 2, Mount Olive. The students at North Duplin under the direction of Hoxie have produced the musicals "Oklahoma" and "Finian's Rainbow."

The play is educationally worthwhile," Brian Hoxie said. "It is the only thing we have in the area of drama. There are no drama classes at North Duplin." The performance of "Oklahoma" was seen by more than 900 people during the two-night run. And, more than 600 people turned out for the musical "Finian's Rainbow." Seating capacity in the gym for "Hello, Dolly!" is estimated at about 300 people nightly. Hoxie said. "There will be more than 50 people in the show," Hoxie said. "It is really a school effort to put on the production. The shop classes build any complicated props and set and the agriculture classes help with the set." Admission is tentatively set at $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for students. The cast also includes Dannie Taylor, a senior, as Cornelius Hackl, Jill Best, a sophomore as Irene Mollory, Phil Evans, a junior, as Ambrose Kemper, Sarah Best, a senior, as Ermengarde, Angie Kennedy, a senior, as Mini Faye, and Rodney Wilson, a sophomore as Barnaby.

Harrells Christian Academy Kindergarten Registration

Harrells Christian Academy will hold its kindergarten registration for the 1983-84 school year on Wednesday, April 13 from 9 a.m. through 12 noon. The North Carolina law and HCA have established certain entry requirements. It is necessary to comply with these requirements which are listed: 1. Immunizations - diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough vaccine, polio, red measles (rubeola) and German measles (rubella), mumps (recommended but not mandatory). Immunization must be completed prior to enrollment in the fall. Early registration will give time to have all requirements completed. Bring immunization record. 2. A birth certificate or other satisfactory evidence of date of birth is required. To meet age requirements, the child must be five on or before Oct. 16, 1983. Bring birth certificate. 3. A physical examination including the TB skin test is required. The examination should be completed and taken to the school on or before opening day of school for 1983. 4. The kindergarten children presently enrolled will not attend school the day of kindergarten registration.

Every week, nine out of 10 adults read at least one newspaper.

The large proportion of working mothers in this state has created the need for child care services. As of September, North Carolina had 2,223 licensed child care centers and 7,631 registered day care homes.

Ice cubes frozen with a twist of lemon peel add flavor to diet beverages and sparkling mineral water.

Wax the inside of your wastebaskets with a polishing wax. This will help keep objects from sticking and will prevent rust in metal containers.

Store onions in a cool and dry place. High humidity tends to start root growth and decay.

Margarine will produce textures a bit different from butter in cooking and baking and there will be a flavor difference, but the money saved may be more important to your family. Both contain 80 percent fat.

Free Milk Offer Ends March 31

Millions of American children are being encouraged to drink more milk this month as Nestlé and Nabisco join efforts for their now classic free milk promotion. A free half gallon of milk is offered through store displays to consumers who send in proof-of-purchase of Nestlé Quik chocolate flavor and Oreo chocolate sandwich cookies. And the American Dairy Association is endorsing the milk promotion by printing the offer on 400 million milk cartons this month.

Last year over 400,000 half gallons of milk were given away during the one-month promotion. Since the introduction of the Quik/Oreo displays in 1974, as many as 2,437,000 half gallons of milk were given to consumers, representing over 19 million glasses of milk. It would take almost 400 cows, laboring every day for over one year to produce the amount of free milk given away by Nabisco and Nestlé over the past eight years.

Nestlé Quik chocolate flavor was introduced in 1948 and is the most popular milk additive in the U.S. Oreo cookies have been a tradition since 1912. And milk is the nation's best seller in the dairy case.

This month and any time try this Quick Chocolate Shake recipe with milk and ice cream for an extra treat.

QUICK CHOCOLATE SHAKE
 1 scoop (1/2 cup) ice cream, softened
 1 cup milk
 3 heaping teaspoons Nestlé Quik chocolate flavor

In blender container, combine ice cream, milk and Nestlé Quik chocolate flavor. Process on medium speed until well blended. Makes: two 8-oz. servings
