Tyndall-Koonce Pledge Vows

Miss Connie Lynn Koonce of Pink Hill and Bobby Lynn Tyndall of Deep Run were united in marriage Saturday, April 2 at seven o'clock in the Christian Chapel Free Will Baptist Church. The Rev. Ed Miles and the Rev. Norman Ard officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Terry Koonce of Kinston. She is the daughter of Mrs. Magdalene Koonce of Route 1, Pink Hill, and the late Bob S. Koonce.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gene Tyndall of Deep Run.

The bride wore a white formal-length gown of polyester organza and Chantilly lace featuring a high lace-trimmed neckline with a Shiffli embroidered insert. The bodice was accented in seed pearls with motifs of lace and long puffed sleeves with appliques of lace and wide lace cuffs ending with a ruffle of organza. The full circular skirt was accented with lace appliques. Chantilly lace trimmed the attached chapel-length train. The Juliette headpiece of pearls was attached to a waltz-length two-tiered rolled edge veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a silk bouquet of lavender and white azaleas, lilies and stephanotis showered with ribbon steamers.

Miss Patsy Kennedy of Pink Hill, friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Angie Tyndall of Deep Run, sister of the groom, and Michelle Deaver of Deep Run, cousin of the groom.

The groom's father served as best man. Groomsman were W.H. Howard of Pink Hill and Bobby G. Koonce of New Bern, brother of the bride.

Patricia Lugo and Dewalae Koonce, nieces of the bride, were flowergirls. The ring bearer was Bradley Miller, nephew of the bride.

Mrs. Louise Summerlin of Seven Springs was the pianist and Mrs. Emogene Howard of Deep Run was the soloist.

Mrs. Lynda W. Stroud directed the wedding. Debbie Miller, sister of the bride, presided at the guest registry.

The bride is a senior at South Lenoir High School. The groom is a graduate of South Lenoir High School and is employed at Guilford East.

After a wedding trip to unannounced points, the couple will make their home on Route 1, Deep Run.

Immediately following the ceremony, the mother of the bride entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Betty Carol Tyndall served cake. Mrs. Mary Ann Lugo poured punch. The silver five-branched candelabra held an arrangement of yellow and lavender fuji poms and pink carnations showered with gypsophila. Identical fresh flowers adorned the wedding cake.

Prior to the rehearsal April 1, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gene Tyndall entertained the bridal couple, wedding party and out-of-town guests at a barbecue held at the Christian Chapel fellowship hall.

The bridesmaids luncheon was held on April 1 at the home of Betty Carol Tyndall with Mrs. Tyndall and Mrs. Carrie Mae Tyndall as co-hostesses.

THANK YOU

The Edward Earl Smith family would like to thank each and everyone for the prayers, kindness and gifts that were given to them during the recent loss of their home which was destroyed by fire.

Highway Patrol Wives
The North Carolina Highway Patrol State Auxiliary held its semi-annual meeting in Gastonia March 25-27. Local members attending were Brenda Edwards, Letress Hammonds and Kay Autry.

At the Saturday business meeting it was reported that the entire $5,000 had been raised to buy a pair of bears for the State Zoo as soon as the zoo could build an appropriate habitat for them. Members are still studying a plan to build a monument to officers who have been killed in the line of duty.

The seminars were on Patrol insurance and benefits and on self-assertion. After the business meeting, the ladies enjoyed shopping in Gastonia and Charlotte. The next convention was set for Southern Pines in October.

Weiner Roast

Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Price honored their daughter, Tiffany, with a weiner roast in their back yard Wednesday afternoon to help her celebrate her 12th birthday. About 30 friends and neighbors began arriving on March 29th at 4:30 in the afternoon. After singing and dancing to the stereo music, they enjoyed hot dogs, potato chips, peanuts and soft drinks along with the birthday cake which was iced in yellow and held green candles.

Slumber Party

Kathy Bowden, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicky Bowden of Pinecrest Acres, was given a slumber party Thursday night by her parents. Her guests were: Nagia Ammar, Courtney Zackheim, Renee Taylor, Sarah Williamson, Karen Brinson and Shanna Hutchins. For supper they enjoyed hot dogs, potato chips, pepsis and birthday cake. The cake was decorated with yellow rosebuds surrounded by green leaves.
