Nursing Home Week May 8-14

According to Julie Lane, activities director, Guardian Care Nursing Home of Kenansville will join with thousands of nursing homes across the country in celebrating National Nursing Home Week May 4-14.

"Memories were made to be Shared", is the 1983 theme. It is selected as a reminder to everyone in the community that nursing home residents want to share their many experiences with family and neighbors during that week. Guardian Care will provide many opportunities for this sharing as well as special activities to honor the residents and staff.

DCAC Presents Mountain Musician

This week is a big one for the Duplin County Arts Council and for the children in seven of our schools, for this is the week when Frank Proffitt will visit the schools. Proffitt is a mountain musician. He is an honest-to-goodness mountaineer and seeks to show through his artistic talents the ways that mountain people are important to North Carolina's heritage. The stories he tells in the simple and plain and concise way the mountaineers tell stories have been handed down for generations.

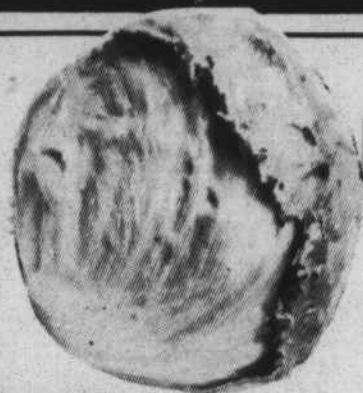

Frank Proffitt

He is a musician too; he plays the dulcimer and the "banjer," as he calls it, and also the guitar. The way mountaineers play them. And, the tunes he plays are mountain tunes.

The Arts Council has scheduled Proffitt in seven of the schools and at several community functions. Visitors are welcome at any of the performances. The school schedule is: Wed., May 4 - 10:25 a.m., E.E. Smith Jr. High in Kenansville; 1:30 p.m., Warsaw Jr. High, Thursday, May 5 - 9 a.m., Beulaville Elementary; 1 p.m., N. Duplin High with N. Duplin Jr. High bussed over, Thursday, May 5 - Extended Day School at E.E. Smith Jr. High in Kenansville, Friday, May 6 - 9 a.m., Charity Jr. High at Rose Hill and 2 p.m., Chinquapin I with Chinquapin II bussed.

The DCAC has received funding in part for this project thru a grant from the touring program of the N.C. Arts Council.
