

THE PINK HILL REVIEW

"Serving Pink Hill, Deep Run, Albertson, Beulaville, And Their Surrounding Areas"

VOL. 5 NO. 20

KENANSVILLE, NC 28349

MAY 19, 1983

DUPLIN COUNTY was well represented at the meeting of the North Carolina League of Municipalities last week when they met in Raleigh. The league sponsored a reception for their legislators on Thursday. Present are: J. Luther Powell, Wallace commissioner; Ruby Ramsey, mayor of Teachey; Lualda Brinkley, town clerk, Teachey;

Arnold Duncan, Wallace commissioner; Robert Hyatt, manager, Wallace; Melvin Pope, mayor of Magnolia; Sam Godwin, mayor of Warsaw; Donald Suttles, mayor of Kenansville; Melvin Cording, mayor of Wallace; and Representative Wendell H. Murphy.

Pink Hill May Board Meeting

Doris Dunn, manager of the Keg, appeared before the town board of Pink Hill stating that she was in the process of buying the business and was requesting a license in her name to operate the establishment. Action was postponed until a public hearing can be held at the June meeting.

Gruman Company explained their package deal for a new fire truck. The firm is offering a $64,038 truck with a down payment of $6,403.80 and 7 1/2% financing for 10 years.

No contracts have been signed at this time for a new fire truck.

Town commissioner Manley Hatch announced that gutters needed installation and some stumps needed removal at the new Medical Center site. Additional bids are to be secured for the stump removal before any action is taken.

Town policeman Lester Turner reported 4 DULs, one careless and reckless driving, and two wrecks during the month of April.

In conclusion, a discussion of the new budget was discussed. John Smith, C.P.A. received the bid on the town auditing for the new year.

Depot Gets Reprive

Magnolia's town board voted to leave the depot as is until its present land lease expires in December. The town leases the land the depot sits on from the railroad company for $100 a year. It also has a million-dollar liability insurance policy in force that costs $136. It, too, expires in December.

have the depot moved from railroad property. The doors and windows facing the railroad tracks must be boarded up and the rock and dirt wall on the railroad side must be removed.

In other action by the board, Mary Ann Harrell asked for and received a deduction on her water bill for the month of April due to a leak. The board voted to deduct $44 from the sewer bill.

The board decided to delay action on the Gilbert Aponte Jr. property taxes
