Baptist Circles

The Cora Stokes Circle of the Women of the local Baptist Church met at three o'clock Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ellis Vestal. Mrs. Cleora Hudson presided and had the opening prayer. The program was presented by Mrs. Vestal, her topic being "Ministering to Foreign Missionaries and their Families." Mrs. Vestal also made the closing prayer, after which she served cherry cheesecake and coffee to those present. She was assisted by Mrs. George Penney.

The Ella Cooper Circle met Monday night with Mrs. Amos Brinson, and Mrs. Lauren Sharpe was co-hostess. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Brinson, who also gave the call to prayer. Mrs. Sharpe had charge of the program and discussed "Mark, Maturing of Commitment." During the social hour the hostesses served strawberry cake and coffee to the eight ladies present.

Presbyterian Women

Circle #1 of the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon in the fellowship hall of the church for its regular monthly meeting. Miss Annie Catherine Rhodes presided. After singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" with Louise Boney at the piano, The Rev. David Dickey made the opening prayer. The Bible study from Colossians was moderated by Mrs. Amos Chestnut with all present taking part. After the closing prayer by Mrs. Ralph Barwick, the group went to The General Store where they were served fresh strawberries with coffee or tea as guests of Mrs. Barwick.

Circle #2 met that night with Mrs. Ralph Brown, who also presided and made the opening prayer. Mrs. Troy D. Mullis moderated the Bible study and made the closing prayer. For refreshments, Mrs. Brown served strawberry shortcake and salted peanuts to the nine members and two visitors present. She was assisted by Mrs. Bob Jones.

United Methodist Women

The afternoon circle of the Kenansville United Methodist Women met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E.S. McGowan. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Viola W. Quinn and Mrs. W.M. Ingram made the opening prayer. The program was a continuation of the Bible study of Isaiah and was in charge of Mrs. Walter Smith. The closing prayer was made by Mrs. Myrtle K. Quinn, after which the hostess served strawberry shortcake and toasted pecans to the eight ladies present.

The evening circle met that night with Mrs. Henry Guy. The opening prayer was made by Mrs. Dixon Hall, who also presided and had the program on "Many Kinds of Parents." During the social hour which followed, Mrs. Guy served strawberry shortcake and coffee to the six ladies present.

Eastern Star

Gloria Brown, worthy matron, and Gene Brown, worthy patron, were in their respective stations Tuesday night when the Kenansville Chapter #215, Order of the Eastern Star, met for its regular bi-monthly meeting. After the ritualistic opening and business session, The worthy matron previewed the new yearbooks and also presented a short Mother's Day program. The next stated meeting will be on May 24.

Homemakers Club

Mrs. J.B. Stroud was hostess for the South Kenansville Extension Homemakers Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Milton Rice, president, presided over the meeting. "The Old North State" was used for the opening song with Louise W. Mitchell at the piano. Mrs. Stroud conducted the devotional using Genesis, Chapter 1, stressing verse 3, "Let there be Light," followed by prayer of thanksgiving for God's wonderful creation. She also presented the program on "Slim dressing." After closing with the Clubwoman's Collect, the hostess, assisted by her granddaughter, Jennifer Stroud, served strawberry shortcake and coffee to the eight present.
