

Butts-Quinn Speak Vows

Marianna Quinn of Kinston and William Hayden Butts of Lucama were united in marriage at three o'clock Saturday, May 14 in a garden wedding at 1906 Pawnee Drive, Kinston. The Rev. Steve R. Williams of Wendell officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Quinn of Kinston. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Alma B. Quinn of Beulaville and the late Marion Quinn, and the late Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Williams who lived in Beulaville.

The groom is the son of John Franklin Butts of Kinston and Mrs. Geraldine Moore of Lucama.

The bride wore a floor-length gown with a chapel train of taffeta and Venice lace edged with chantilly lace. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped lace yoke and neckline and caplet sleeves. A taffeta ruffle outlined the neckline. The basque waist was lavishly appliqued with Venice lace motifs etched with seed pearls. Lace gauntlets complemented the sleeves of the gown. The bridal veil was a waltz-length mantilla of bridal illusion bordered with garlands of lace flowing from a lace caplet etched with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and rosebuds, lily-of-the-valley, gypsophila, stephanotis, babies'-breath and ivy.

Stephanie Quinn of Kinston, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Donna Williams of Kinston, cousin of the bride; Pam Page and Beth Page, both of Deep Run. Junior bridesmaids were Amy Copeland and Jami-Laura Copeland, both of Kinston.

Julie Anna Copeland of Kinston was the flowergirl and Patrick Johnson of Kinston was the ringbearer.

The groom chose Bobby Page of Deep Run to serve as best man. Ushers were Wayne Butts of Lucama, Eddie Butts of Florence, S.C. and Dexter Butts, of Florence, S.C., all brothers of the groom. Junior usher was Jason Taylor of Richlands, cousin of the bride.

Nuptial music was presented by Ned Bradberry, organist, and Mrs. Annabelle Bonham of Rose Hill, cousin of the bride, vocalist.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Jewel Rider and Ms. Dianna McMillin of Kinston presided at the register.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Kinston High School and attended Lenoir Community College for two years. She is employed with the Piggly Wiggly North Carolina Company, Kinston.

The groom is a 1970 graduate of North Johnston High School in Kenly and attended Wilson Tech. He is employed with Cox Dodge in Wilson.
