

Duplin Students Receive MOC Associate Degrees

Marsha Carter, Regina Kilpatrick, Melissa Jones, Marie DeJan, Daly Rae Carlton, Jean Hall, Barbara Williams and Patty Pickett were among 104 graduates who received associate degrees during the 28th graduation exercises at Mount Olive College.

The class of 1983 had the distinction historically of being the last to receive their associate degrees before MOC makes the transition to 4-year status. Although the College will continue to offer associate degrees, students who enrolled this fall as freshmen will have the option of becoming members of the school's first 4-year graduating class in 1986.

Dr. Leo Jenkins, retired chancellor of East Carolina University, delivered the commencement address.

Located in Wayne County, MOC is sponsored by the N.C. State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists.
