Rockfish Pro Jim Finch reports Zeb Atkinson, Charlie Toal, Randy Mattock, Leon Wells and Billy Saunders winners in the Flag Golf Tournament held last Sunday afternoon. The tournament format is you play with your full handicap and when you run out of strokes...that's your round and up goes the flag. The player that goes the farthest wins.

Pro Doug Smith announces superbowl winners from last week including two teams tied for first place with a best ball 66. Wayne and Beverly Nunn teamed with Bill Merritt and Jack Carr's team of L.L. Lee and Erlene Gavin.

Smith also announces a dance this coming Saturday night, June 25th, for members and guest starting at nine o'clock in the evening.

Duplin Pro Rick Green reports that Ed Rector teed it up with John McGuire, Mark Ellenberg, Bill Spicer and Claudette Hedrick to win first place in the five o'clock superbowl. Brad Edens teams with Mom and Dad (Randy and Nancy) along with Buster and Karen Johnson to take second place.

Pro Rick Green announces a two-club superbowl this Friday afternoon at five thirty...you all come and play. That's this Friday, June 24th at DCC.

Pro Finch down at Rockfish of Wallace announces a Scramble Golf Tournament was on tap for this coming Sunday afternoon, June 26th with a shotgun start at one thirty. Finch also announces junior boys and girls golf clinics June 24th at ten in the morning and ladies clinics at six thirty in the afternoon.

Longmeadow Manager Monty Robinson announces the annual "member-member" scheduled for this coming weekend, June 25-26. Awards presentation will follow along with a pig pickin' Sunday.

Southern Wayne Pro Rick Murphy reports the team of Richard Hagen and Larry Phipps of Goldsboro winners in the annual member-guest golf tournament held at SWCC.

Duplin youngsters are reminded of the free golf lessons set for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week at ten o'clock in the mornings. Lady clinics will be held also on those days at six in the afternoon. You are invited to take advantage of the tips from Pro Rick Green.

Don't forget Coharie Country Club will stage their 15th Annual Invitational in Clinton, Saturday and Sunday, July 16-17.
