

Register-Andrews Speak Vows

Saturday, June 25th at six o'clock in the evening, Marie Register and Luther T. (Rabbi) Register Jr. were united in marriage with the Reverend Richard Lewis officiating. The double-ring ceremony and vows were spoken in the flower-garden of the groom's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Andrews of Rose Hill and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther T. Register Sr. of Magnolia. The only decorations other than the beautiful blooming plants and roses were the altar arch decorations. The arch was entwined with ivy and yellow glads. On each side was a basket of ferns and glads.

Mrs. Maude Smith, organist, presented the traditional wedding music and wedding march on a chord-organ set up for the occasion.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, chose an off-white full-length satin gown overlain with net with a high lace neckline extending down to the fitted bodice. The sleeves were full with lace encircling the wrist. Her only jewelry was a petite pair of pearl earrings. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and white daisies with off-white streamers of lace inserted ribbon.

Mrs. Betty Lanier, sister of the groom, served as matron of honor. She wore a full-length dress of huckleberry taffeta with off-white lace trim and carried a bouquet of pink carnations with off-white lace ribbon. Mrs. Pattie King of Rose Hill was bridesmaid and her gown and bouquet was identical to that of the matron of honor's.

The groom wore a light grey suit and his boutonniere was a red rosebud. He chose as his best man the bride's brother, Michael Howard. Timmy Register, brother of the groom, served as usher. All of the men excepting the groom wore boutonnières of pink carnations.

Mrs. Howard chose for her daughter's wedding a pastel lavender street-length dress. She wore a corsage of pink carnations and carried a white lace-trimmed handkerchief. The groom's mother chose a burgundy street-length crepe dress topped with an off-white crepe jacket. She also wore a corsage of pink carnations and carried a white lace-trimmed handkerchief. Mrs. Eva B. Hauts, grandmother of the bride, was attired in a pale blue street-length dress and wore a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Mable Bradshaw, friend of the bride's mother, presided at the bridal register.

As the guests moved to another part of the garden for the reception, Amie and Jodie, daughters of the bride, gave out rice bags. The wedding was directed by Ilene Guy.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Magnolia. For travel, the bride chose a simple white dress and wore a corsage of pink carnations lifted from her bridal bouquet. The groom is self-employed and the bride is employed by the winery in Rose Hill.

Reception

Following the ceremony, the guests were directed to another part of the garden in which a table was lain with a green linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations, pink roses, daisies and babies'-breath.

The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and was iced in yellow with yellow rosettes and white wedding bells. After the couple cut the first slice of cake and tasted the punch, Mrs. Deloris Smith, aunt of the bride, served cake and Mrs. Betty Bradshaw, also the bride's aunt, served the punch.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Shelby Robinson and Mrs. Smithie Taylor.

Rehearsal Entertainment

Following rehearsal Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Luther T. Register Sr. entertained the wedding party, families and friends. The table was set up in the flowergarden and was covered with a green cloth. It was centered with an arrangement of wildflowers. Serving cake was Mrs. Register and serving punch was Mrs. Shelby Robinson.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jackson Dunn Sr. of Warsaw are pleased to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Joyce Elaine, to Mr. John Jacob Theodore Beck of Kenansville, son of Mrs. John J. Beck of Seneca Falls, N.Y., and the late Mr. Beck. The wedding is planned for August 12th.

Weddings Held, Engagement Announced

Jenkins-Dail United In Marriage

Sharon Lynn Dail and Lloyd Edward Jenkins were united in marriage at seven o'clock in the evening on Saturday, June 18, 1983, in the Kenansville United Methodist Church. The Reverend James H. Harris officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Dail of Kenansville. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Richard Jenkins of Cullen, Louisiana and the late Mr. Jenkins.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of traditional wedding music was presented by J.W. Boyette, pianist, of Warsaw, and Miss Carol Ann Tucker of Greenville, soloist, who sang "Whither Thou Goest."

The couple spoke their vows before the church altar bedecked with a single mixed summer arrangement of pink and white snaps, red and pink roses, pink carnations, Queen Anne's lace and gypsophila. Two nine-light candelabra, flanked the center focal point along with two brass stands of green palms.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of polyester crepe with a fitted bodice. The Queen Anne neckline was outlined with Venise lace and the front bodice was embroidered with Alencon flowers which encircled the midriff. The sleeves were long and fitted and edged in machine Venise lace. The skirt fell into a chapel-length train which was outlined with skirt fell into a chapel-length forming a scalloped hem. The chapel-length veil was attached to a Juliet cap in matching Alencon flowers. The bride carried a petite Victorian nosegay of pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis, gypsophila, miniature pink carnations and white fugii pompons tied with white lace ribbon.

The bride followed tradition by wearing something

Mrs. Denise Dail Garner of Kenansville was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a formal chiffon gown in dusty rose by Dessey of New York. The full-length gown had a fitted waist accented by a wide sash in the same fabric. The blouson bodice was complimented by a round neckline and a tiered puffed sleeve. She carried a hand-picked bouquet of rubrum lilies, pink roses and carnations, white daisies and gypsophila tied with deep burgundy satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Craft of Raleigh, and Mrs. Deloris Hackler of Shreveport, La., sister of the groom. Their gowns and bouquets were identical to those of the matron of honor.

William C. Roth of Fairfax Station, Va., was the bridegroom's best man. Grooms-men were Richard Roan of Morgan City, La., Edward Dail and Henry Dail, both of Kenansville, brothers of the bride. The groom was attired in a black tuxedo and wore a boutonniere of white stephanotis. The groomsmen wore black tuxedos identical to the groom's with pink rose boutonnières.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of silver chiffon over taffeta. Mrs. Dail carried a corsage of a single rubrum lily and stephanotis accented with a white and pink lace bow. Mrs. Richard Jenkins, mother of the groom, wore a formal gown of lavender crepe and wore a wrist corsage of a rubrum lily and stephanotis accented with a white and pink lace bow.

The maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Roy G. Lanier of Kenansville, wore a formal lilac gown of jersey knit and a white carnation corsage.

Miss Tucker sang "The Wedding Prayer" for a benediction. The church bell tolled as the bridal couple were pronounced man and wife.

Miss Debbie Frazelle of Kinston presided at the bridal register. As the guests left the church, Miss Debra Brown of Garner and Elwood Garner of Kenansville, nephew of the bride, offered rice bags to shower the bridal couple. The wedding was directed by Mrs. Woodrow W. Smith of Wallace.

After a wedding trip to New York and Bermuda, the couple will reside at 2925 Fountain Head, Plano, Texas 75023. The new Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins are both employed by the IBM Corporation in Dallas, Texas.

Reception

Following the wedding ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception and dance in the Jester's Court at the Country Squire. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hardee and introduced to the receiving line.

A buffet table was covered with a white linen cloth centered with an arrangement of magnolia leaves. Guests were served boiled shrimp, Korean beef, Swedish meatballs, fresh fruit, fried chicken drumettes, corned beef, bacon-wrapped chicken livers and a variety of other finger foods. Punch and champagne and mixed drinks were also served. The three-tiered wedding cake and the groom's cake of German chocolate were served from another table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. David H. Wells of Teachey, aunt of the bride; Mrs. William C. Roth of Fairfax Station, Va., and Mrs. Emerson Benton of Hampstead, aunt of the bride. After the bride and groom danced the first selection, all the guests danced to the music of "Showdown."

Rehearsal Dinner

Immediately following rehearsal June 17, Mrs. Richard Jenkins, mother of the groom, entertained the wedding party, family, friends and out-of-town guests at the Graham House Inn in Kenansville. After dinner, Susan Craft presented the groom with a photograph book with pictures of the bride from her birth to the present. At this time, the bridegroom gave gifts to members of the wedding party. Forty guests attended.

Pre-nuptial Courtesies

Mr. and Mrs. Don Suttles and Mr. and Mrs. Z.W. Frazelle of Kenansville entertained the bridal couple with a cocktail party at the Suttles home June 15. Upon arrival Miss Dail was pinned with a corsage of white daisies. Friends, relatives and members of the wedding party were among the approximately 30 guests.

The home of Mrs. Denise Dail Garner was the setting for a bachelorette party on June 16, honoring her sister, Lynn. The approximately 25 guests were entertained with a pig-pickin'.

The bachelor party was held at Lakewood Country Club June 16. Hosts for the pig-pickin' were George Garner, Edward Dail and Henry Dail.

The bridal couple-elect were honored with a champagne breakfast June 17 by Mr. and Mrs. William E. Craft and Mrs. and Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson held on the Craft's lawn. Approximately 25 attended the breakfast.

On June 17 at one o'clock Susan Craft, Cindy Dail, Debra Brown and Denise Garner entertained the bride-elect with a luncheon at the Country Squire in Kenansville. The hostesses presented Lynn a meat fork and pierced spoon in her chosen silver pattern. The bride-elect chose this time to present her attendants with gifts. Approximately 20 guests attended the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Smith of Wallace honored the bridal couple-elect with a luncheon in their home June 18. Members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and relatives were greeted with champagne and orange juice cocktails. The luncheon tables were covered in a variety of hand-embroidered tablecloths and adorned with arrangements of freshly-cut spring flowers.