

19th Hole

PRO. I. B. DUFFER

Wilmington's Jack Hooks set a new course record last Sunday afternoon with a 64 to win the 15th annual Coharie Country Club Invitational in Clinton. Pro Ed Smoot says with the weather at least 100 degrees or better, Hooks battled the legendary George Williams steaming down the fairways to better the old course record set by Williams and Thomas Turlington some years ago with a 65. Hooks came in one stroke back (71-64) on Saturday with Coharie's all-time-great Williams (7-71) to come in with his hot 64. Clinton's Bob Yow (71-71) and Jimmy Raynor (69-73) tied for third place in the championship flight.

Clinton's Henry Faircloth (75-73) edged Goldsboro's standout Jere Hilburn (74-74) to win top honors in the first flight. Gary Norris bested Jim Freeman for third place by one stroke.

Smoot expressed appreciation to all players and members who made the invitational the best tournament in years. "We had 155 players and were well pleased with the cooperation of all during the two-day event," Smoot said.

Longmeadow Country Club reports the team of Butch Budd, Lloyd Moody and Lonnie Record fired a hot 19-under to win the three-man Superball held this past weekend between Beulaville and Pink Hill. Ricky Thigpen, Frank Mellette and Rabon Cottle chased Budd's Bunch all the way and come up one shot back at 18-under. Braxton Smith, Willis Parker and Marvin Whitfield tied Mark Thigpen, Mike Hatch and Morris Grady for third, 16-under par.

Longmeadow will stage their annual Member-Guest August 13-14. Members are urged to invite someone and sign up as soon as possible.

Lakewood Pro Doug Smith reports Wayne Nunn's team of Melvin Ward, Billy Thomas, Bruce Herring and Susan Wood winners in the weekly Superball late last Friday afternoon with a zizzing 29, followed by the team of Dalton Rouse, Cooper Golf, Joe Houston, Wade Ward and Beverly Nunn with a 30.

Pro Rick Green over at Duplin Country Club reports Ike and Marie Riddick, Rob and Kathy Lee and Fisher Carlton teamed to burn up nine and win the late Friday afternoon Superball with a five under-31. Big Buster and Karen Johnson teamed with Minnie Clark and Ike Riddick Jr. to take second place.

Pro Green reports former club champ Buster Johnson fired a red hot 66 at DCC last week.

Green also reminds members of the annual Member-Guest scheduled at Duplin this coming weekend, July 23-24. Green says about 20 teams have signed up to play and urges others to get a partner and play.

Coharie Pro Ed Smoot reports Magnolia's Billy Potter had an "ace" Friday afternoon at his club in Clinton. Raleigh's Jerry Bilzenhofer recorded an ace on the same hole in the 15th annual Invitational. Bilzenhofer was using a four wood and playing with Jere Hilburn, Andy Fitch and Bobby Smith. Potter, Duplin County's all-time-great, used a four iron and Rudy Hasty was in the group. It was Potter's first hole-in-one and the fourth for that fellow from Raleigh.

Pro Jim Finch down at Rockfish reminds members of the Member-Guest set for August 13-14. Get your partner early.
