

Beulaville Town Employees Receive Raise

Beulaville Town Commissioners approved a 10 percent pay raise for town employees after local citizens appeared before the Board in favor of the salary increase. July 5 at the town hall.

A 10 percent salary increase had been included with the 1983-84 budget at the June 27 special Board meeting. A group of Beulaville citizens appeared at the public hearing on the proposed budget June 27, and opposed the salary raise for town employees due to the increased trash collection fees.

Commissioner S.A. Blizard made the motion to raise town employees salary 10 percent. The motion carried with Commissioner Rabon Maready voting no.

Sarah Bolin appeared before the town board requesting the town repair or replace the septic tank at her rental home on Stanford Street. A letter to the Board from Bolin's attorney David Phillips was presented to the Commissioners. The home is serviced by a septic tank which was covered when an addition was constructed to the house. Bolin explained the property would be condemned by the Duplin County Health Department if sewer problems were not alleviated.

Town attorney Rusty Lanier advised Commissioners that Beulaville was not the only municipality which maintained septic tanks. Maintenance and repair to septic tanks at homes beyond sewer lines within city limits and not tank replacement was the extent of the town's responsibility. Lanier explained.

Commissioner Rabon Maready stated his residence has not connected to the town water system and requested town clerk Carol Miller average his sewer fees for the past 12 months and bill him. Town attorney Lanier advised Maready that a home can unhook from the Beulaville water system, but town ordinances require payment of the minimum bill at that residence. Disconnected from the town water system.

Commissioner Blizard stated, the fees for sewer services would be impossible to calculate without a meter.

Several bids for the treatment plant operator position were presented to the Beulaville Commissioners and rejected.

Order Of The Arrow Will Perform At Amphitheatre

The Ithoka Dancers of the Boy Scouts of America, the Order of the Arrow, will be performing the ritual dances of the Sioux Nation at the William R. Kenan Memorial Amphitheatre in Kenansville before the July 23 performance of the outdoor drama, THE LIBERTY CART. The dancers will perform at 7:45 p.m. followed by the drama at 8:15.

THE LIBERTY CART will offer all Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies and Explorer troops in uniform a special admission price of $1 for the July 23 performances.

The Ithoka troop performs the old-style Sioux warrior dances as a way to preserve the culture of the American Plains Indians, advisor Tom Yates explained. Each dancer has been elected to the Order of the Arrow by members of his troop, Yates pointed out. To become eligible for the Order of the Arrow, a Scout must give exceptional service to both his troop and the community.

Members of the OA study American Indian culture and the Ithoka Dancers present the dances in order to promote the BSA, Yates said. The troop will perform the Flag, War, Eagle and Hop dances accompanied by authentic Sioux music with the troop chanting several songs. Members of the group include Wes Yates, Tim Ledford, Billy Maxwell, Benny Hardy, Billy McKemmie, Billy King and W.R. Gay. Yates will act as master of ceremonies.

WTRQ RADIO STATION this week began broadcasting the N.C. News Network and the Tobacco Radio Network programming via satellite. The station has been an affiliate of the N.C. News Network for three years. The network is made up of 70 radio stations in 54 markets across the state and is the first in the state delivering programming via satellite, making it a milestone in the history of N.C. radio broadcasting. Jim Goodmon, Capital Broadcasting Co. president and chief executive officer, said, "With this system, we will be providing State Of The Art service to our stations." He predicted the system will be virtually trouble-free and of the highest technical quality. WTRQ is owned by Quinn Broadcasting Co. of Warsaw and managed by J.L. and Winnafred Moseley. A 10,000-watt A.M. daytime station, WTRQ broadcasts country music, news, sports, weather, beach and fishing reports, public affairs programs plus local news and local public service announcements. There is a Saturday afternoon soul program and Sunday mornings are devoted to gospel, religious and public affairs programming. Mrs. Mosley says, "We hope our listeners will appreciate the improved quality of our satellite news service and we look forward to more and better programming in the future."

Circus Coming To Kenansville

The original Fun-Time Circus is to appear in Kenansville on Tuesday, July 26 and in Wallace July 27 and 28. The Circus grounds will be on Route 24, opposite the Courthouse in Kenansville and across from Tom's Grill in Wallace, Hwy 117N.

Showtimes are at 6 and 8 p.m. America's last old-time family tent show will arrive early on show day and transform the showgrounds into an enchanted village full of fun, laughter and excitement.

This is not a carnival. There are no gambling games or immoral acts or shows — just good clean family entertainment. A delightful day for every child and everyone who was ever a child is promised at a children's wonderland under the big top. Tickets will be sold at the door on show day.

There is an all new show this year, featuring many acts and attractions never seen in this area before: The Tee Jays, jugglers; Tomi Michaels and his flying saucers; Mr. Jimmy Adams on the tight wire; Miss Lori Ann, the human pretzel; Princess Talksalot and her Indian pony, Won't Listen; Tom-Cat and Co. funnymen. All this and more, much more. Don't let your friends tell you what a wonderfully fine show you missed.

This circus is sponsored by the Duplin County Law Enforcement Association.
