The shower was given by Mrs. Ghaynelle Garner, Mrs. Wilma Herring, Mrs. Johnny Hunter, Mrs. Bert Ray, Mrs. Marguerite West, Mrs. Edith Costin, Mrs. Marjorie Johnson, Mrs. Colleen Martin and Mrs. Doris Strickland.

Futral-Brinson United

Glonda Lenore Brinson and Shannon Myles Futral exchanged their wedding vows at six o'clock in a Saturday afternoon garden ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, The Reverend Edward Neal, pastor of the Potters Hill Advent Christian Church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Brinson of Route 1, Beulaville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Futral of Route 1, Pink Hill.

A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Carla Casteen, pianist, Doris Sandlin, cousin of the bride, sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a floor-length gown of white qiana featuring a high neckline. The flowing skirt was tiered with ruffles. The waist was accented with a sash of white satin. A finger-tip two-tiered veil fell from a crown of white silk flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white, yellow and blue silk flowers.

Marsha Hatcher of Raleigh was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Myra Langdon and Melita Butler, both of Raleigh. They wore floor-length gowns of blue polyester. They carried nosegays of white, yellow and blue silk flowers. Lesley Hatcher was the flowergirl. She wore a floor-length gown of white trimmed in blue and carried a basket of white, yellow and blue silk flowers.

The bridegroom wore a dark gray tuxedo with a yellow carnation boutonniere. His father served as best man. Ushers were Jimmy Brinson, brother of the bride, Donny Langdon and Terry Hatcher of Raleigh. The best man and ushers wore attire similar to the groom's.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of mauve polyester. The mother of the groom wore an aqua gown. They wore corsages of white carnations.

The wedding was directed by Angie Miller of Beulaville. Martha Parker, cousin of the bride, attended the register.

Reception
Following the ceremony, a reception was hosted by the bride's parents, Pat Riley, friend of the bride, served the three-tiered wedding cake. Sue Lanier, also a friend of the bride, poured punch from a silver punch-bowl. Other refreshments consisted of miniature ham biseuits, nuts, pennies from heaven and mints.

Rehearsal Dinner
A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's family immediately after the rehearsal on Friday night. The bride and groom chose this time to present gifts to their attendants.

Pre-nuptial Showers
A floating miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the couple at the home of the bride's parents on June 18. The couple received many nice and useful gifts.

The bride-elect was honored with a lingerie shower at the home of Doris Sandlin of Beulaville on July 17. She received many pretty and useful gifts.

Smith-Grady Speak Vows

On Sunday, July 17, at four o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Lori Ann Grady and Joal Newkirk Smith pledged their wedding vows. The Reverend James Creech of Warsaw and Reverend Elwin Melton of Grantham officiated the double-ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Bonnie Harper, organist, and Rene Hood, soloist. Mrs. Hood sang "There is Love" and "The Wedding Prayer." Traditional wedding marches were used.

Mr. and Mrs. Granger Grady of Route 4, Mount Olive, are the parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith of Warsaw are the parents of the groom.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown of polyester organza lined in acetate taffeta with a stand-up collar. The front and back ruffle-trimmed yokes were of lace. The sleeves were of lace-trimmed illusion with snap-closed lace cuffs. The full skirt of organza over taffeta was attached to a chapel-length train. Her headpiece was of sheer polyester with nylon veiling. The lace trim matched her bridal gown and was trimmed with simulated seed pearls. The bride carried a petite nosegay of white silk gardenias, roses, carnations and freesia interspersed with gypsophila and accented with long white picot-edged satin ribbons.

Miss Donna Grady served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sandra Ryan, sister of the bride, Miss Kelly Smith and Mrs. Josef-Ann Wells, both of Warsaw and sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Rita Stuart and Mrs. Lynette Howell.

Al Smith served as his son's best man. Ushers were Scotty Smith of Warsaw, brother of the groom; Kenneth Grady of Mount Olive and Glenn Grady of Kenansville, brothers of the bride; J.W. Vinson of Faison and David Rouse of Asheville.

Mrs. Erlene Bryan, cousin of the bride, directed the wedding. Miss Suzanne Weaver presided at the register. David and Andrew Ryan, nephews of the bride, distributed rice bags.

The bride is a 1981 honor graduate of Southern Wayne Senior High School and a 1983 graduate of Wayne Community College, where she received an Associate of Applied Science degree in the executive secretary field and was a member of Phi Theta Kappa, national honor society.

The groom, a 1979 graduate of James Kenan High School, attended James Sprunt Technical College and is now serving in the U.S. Coast Guard, stationed at Cape May, N.J.

After a wedding trip to Charleston, S.C., the couple will reside in North Cape May, N.J.

Reception

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express the appreciation that we feel towards our relatives, friends and neighbors during the loss of my beloved husband. I wish to express my gratitude to Rev. Jack Dawsey for his words of comfort. Special thanks to Potter's Hill Advent Christian Church, Sand Hill Church and Sandy Plain, and to anyone else who helped to bring and serve the wonderful food.

Also I would like to thank the Beulaville Rescue, Dr. C.L. Quinn and the Emergency Room at DGH, and anyone else for their care and concern at the time of his death.

May God bless each of you for your cards, calls, flowers, visits, and most of all for your prayers and expressions of concern during our bereavement.
