

NAMED ALL-TOURNAMENT - The Warsaw Little League All-Star team participated in the Marion Merritt Invitational baseball tournament sponsored by the Goldsboro Boys' Club last week. Warsaw picked up fourth place in the 11-team tournament. A team of nine all-tournament players was named from the 150 participants, and Warsaw's Bron Thompson and Patrick Boyette were among the all-tournament selections. Bron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jene Thompson and Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Boyette. Bron played second base, shortstop and pitched. Patrick pitched and played third base during the Little League games. The All-Stars lost Thursday night to Kinston after nine innings with the score 5-4. On Friday they won over Goldsboro 12-9. Boyette was the winning pitcher. The Warsaw team got 8 hits in the bottom of the 5th inning and scored 10 runs. The final defeat came in the bottom of the 6th inning when Elizabeth City drove in two runs for a final score of 5-4. Pictured above, left to right, Bron Thompson and Patrick Boyette.

Outstanding Senior Citizen Honored In Pink Hill

The Young in Hearts Club met July 27 at the Family Restaurant in Pink Hill. Members were welcomed by club president, Lottie Noble. A devotional was given by chaplain, Belle Jones. Following lunch, Sue Akoury of the Kinston Recreation Department, club advisor, presented a plaque to Eliza King, who was voted "outstanding club member of 1983." Mrs. King has served as treasurer since the group's organization in July of 1981.

Attending were Estelle Creel, Essie Edwards, Kathleen Harper, Mamie Heath, Paulene Heath, Gladys Howard, Belle Jones, Eliza King, Florence Mallard, Viola Mills, Lottie Noble, Beulah Quinn, Carrie Smith and Sarah Worley.

The club is currently making plans for a trip to Fisherman's Wharf. The next meeting will be on Aug. 24 at 2 p.m. at the Pink Hill Presbyterian Church. At that time all are asked to bring a prize to donate for Bingo.

Any person 55 or above who would like more information about the club's activities may contact Lottie Noble at 523-2979 or Sue Akoury at 527-9053.

Pink Hill Man Charged With Two Drug Charges

Weaver Ward Baker of Route 2, Pink Hill, white male, 40 years of age, was charged with possession of marijuana with intent to manufacture, and manufacturing marijuana. The plants were found off Highway #241 behind Sandy Plains Church.

He was arrested August 4, 1983 and a bond of $5,000 was set. Trial was set at August 18, 1983.

Baker was arrested and brought to the Duplin County Jail August 4 by Richard Whitman, Duplin County deputy.

Put Your TV To Work And Earn A High School Education

Attain a better education without worrying about day care, transportation or attending classes. By watching weekly courses on channels 4 or 19, you can learn basic reading skills, study for your high school education, or prepare for a test to get your high school equivalency certificate.

The adult learning series consists of three courses, adult basic education, pre-general educational development, and general educational development. Adult Basic Education (ABE) provides lessons in elementary school level reading, math and other subjects. Pre-General Education (Pre-GED) teaches courses at the junior high level, and General Educational Development (GED) offers preparatory instruction for the high school equivalency examination.

The UNC Center for Public TV will begin broadcasting these courses Sept. 6 over channels 4 or 19 across the country. Courses will be broadcast from 8-8:30 a.m. weekdays and weekday afternoons from 8:30-4 p.m., and from 7-8 a.m. on Saturdays. (Only GED repeated) All the courses are free but you must sign up at James Sprunt Technical College on or before Aug. 29.

You can register on Aug. 22 and 25 between 9-11 a.m., 1-3:30 p.m. and 6-9 p.m. Trained instructors are available to help. You will be required to meet three times and by calling 296-1341, ext. 220 or 263, you will be given help on each lesson.

For more information, call or write George Hill or Mary Ireland at JSTC, P.O. Box 398, Kenansville, NC 28349. Or call 296-1341
