

Beck-Dunn United

Joyce Elaine Dunn of Warsaw and John Jacob Theodore Beck Jr. of Kenansville were united in marriage at 8 p. m. Friday, Aug. 12, in the First Original Free Will Baptist Church in Warsaw. The Rev. Foy Futrelle of Goldsboro officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jackson Dunn of Warsaw.

The groom is the son of Mrs. John J. Beck of Seneca Falls, N.Y. and the late Mr. Beck.

The bride wore a white formal length gown of white organza and chantilly lace with an empire waistline and lace covered bodice with scalloped see-through neckline of French net embossed with schiffli floral lace design.

The gown featured a high ring collar of chantilly lace and full sheer bishop sleeves with wide chantilly lace cuffs. A full A-line skirt bordered with chantilly lace and organza ruffles flowed into a chapel length train. A fingertip veil was attached to a Juliet capulet.

The bride carried a silk bouquet of pink roses and carnations.

Mrs. Pam English of Goldsboro was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pam Strickland of Greenville; Mrs. Barbara Bartels of Geneva, N.Y.; and Miss Becky Dunn of Warsaw was the junior bridesmaid.

The groom chose Harold Nordblom of Honeybrook, Pa. to serve as best man. Ushers were Jeffrey Keith Kennedy of Mount Olive; Willie Jackson Dunn Jr. of Warsaw; and Michael Kennedy of Mount Olive.

Nuptial music was presented by John W. Boyette Jr. of Warsaw, organist, and Robert Phelps of Kenansville, vocalist.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Catherine Lee of Kenansville and Miss Lisa Dunn of Warsaw presided at the register.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of East Carolina University and is a master's degree candidate in history. She is employed at Caswell-Neuse State Historic Site as assistant manager.

The groom has an undergraduate degree from the University of South Carolina and a master's degree from UNC-CH, and is also a Ph.D candidate in history at UNC-CH. He is the history and political science instructor at James Sprunt Technical College in Kenansville.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C., the couple will reside in Kenansville.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Irma Dunn, sister-in-law of the bride, served cake. Mrs. Tonda Watson served punch.

On July 23, a shower was given at the home of Mrs. Alan Brown in Warsaw given by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Pam English, Mrs. Pam Strickland and Mrs. Tonda Watson.

On July 24, a shower was held at the home of Mrs. Willie J. Dunn Jr., sister-in-law of the bride given by Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Anne Kennedy, sister of the bride.

On Aug. 11, a rehearsal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robin Watson of Kenansville by Mrs. Mildred Beck, mother of the groom.

On Aug. 12, a bridesmaids luncheon was given by Mrs. Anne Kennedy, sister of the bride, at her home in Mount Olive.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED - Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Hilsinger of Grifton, Route 2, announce the engagement and plans for the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Airman John W. Byrd, son of Marlene S. Hill of Pink Hill and Billy McCoy Byrd of Beulaville. A September 10 wedding is planned at the Bible Missionary Church in Kinston.

Jackson And Stallings Unite

Wendy Joy Stallings of Deep Run and David Troy Jackson of Kinston were united in marriage at eight o'clock in the evening on Saturday, July 16 at Christian Chapel Free Will Baptist Church, Pink Hill. The Rev. Ed Miles officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her family and escorted to the altar by her father, Willie A. Stallings of Bath. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hill of Deep Run.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Jackson Jr. of LaGrange.

The bride wore a formal white Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline outlined with scalloped lace and etched with pearls and iridescents. The full, lace bishop sleeves with satin ribbon trim closed with deep lace cuffs. The softly-gathered cascading tiered lace skirt flowed into an attached chapel train. Her rolled-edge fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace Camelot etched with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses highlighted with lavender babies'-breath and centered with an orchid.

Flora Howard, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Carl MaHaffey and Wendy Hill were bridesmaids.

The groom chose his father to serve as best man. Ushers were Walter Jackson of LaGrange, Dennis Macmasters of Kinston, Roddy Howard of Pink Hill and Billy Stallings of Deep Run.

Nuptial music was presented by Nancy Stroud.
