

Evans-Kennedy Exchange Vows

On Sunday, August 28, 1983, at five o'clock in the afternoon, Jan Kennedy and Kent Evans were united in marriage. The wedding took place in the Jester's Court at

The Country Squire, Kenansville. The candlelight Primitive Baptist Ceremony of Olde England, was performed by Elder Jack Dawsey of Swansboro.

Jan is the daughter of Mrs. Lois H. Kennedy of Pink Hill and the late Lloyd Kennedy. Kent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Evans of Chinquapin.

Jim Aycock of Fremont performed a program of wedding music. Soloists Danny Jenkins and Anabelle Bonham sang several songs chosen by Jan and Kent.

Jan was escorted to the altar by Benny H. Kennedy, brother of the bride, and given in marriage by her mother and him.

The bride wore a gown by Zurc of Joelle. The designer gown featured a silhouette-dramatic asymmetric drop-waist bodice. The illusion embroidered yoke was accented with alencon lace and beaded pearls. The long fitted sleeves were also accented with lace and pearls and ended in a point at the wrist. Balancing the bodice, a side-drape chiffon skirt edged with satin ribbons was designed with a full circular chapel sweep. Jan's headpiece was a headband of pearls and silk rosettes. Three tiers of illusion dotted with pearls fell into cathedral length. Her bouquet was a dozen long-stemmed pink roses tied with double-faced satin ribbon.

Mrs. Barbara Quinn of Beulaville, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Linda Lanier of Beulaville, sister of the bride; Mrs. Kay Evans of Beulaville, Miss Lynn Stancil of Greensboro, Miss Kelly Stallings of Wilmington, all friends of the bride. Each attendant wore a formal all white tea-length gown of moire taffeta. Each attendant carried a bouquet of long-stemmed pink roses with pink satin ribbon.

The flowergirls included Miss Brandy Kennedy, Miss Hollie Griffin, both of Beulaville, and Miss Angelia Bachelor of Chinquapin. They wore street-length dresses of white moire taffeta with pink satin cummerbunds and bows.

John Ashley Lanier, nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer, wearing a white linen tuxedo suit with a pink bow tie.

The father of the bridegroom served as best man. Groomsmen included Bruce Evans of Wilmington, Woody Evans of Beulaville, brothers of the groom, Andy Griffin of Beulaville, and Wayne Lanier of Topsail Beach. All of the groomsmen wore a Yves Saint Laurent white double-breasted tuxedo with black matching pants accented with a pink cummerbund and bow tie.

The mothers of both the bride and groom chose formal gowns of pink chiffon. Miss Becky Barbee and Miss Alison Albritton of Kinston, presided at the register.

The wedding was directed by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller of Beulaville.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's mother in the Jester's Court. A menu of mid-day hors d'oeuvres were served.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Evans, parents of the groom, entertained the wedding party and friends at a sit-down dinner at the Hallsville Presbyterian Church.

Pre-nuptial Courtesies

A miscellaneous shower was given for the bridal couple on August 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Quinn in Beulaville.

The bride was given a lingerie shower August 24 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kennedy. Assisting were Mrs. Kay Evans and Mrs. LouAnn Evans.
