

GRADY FESTIVAL UNDERWAY - Last week students at B.F. Grady school began to bring in money from ticket sales to the 1983 fall festival scheduled for October 1. According to Principal Paul Britt, the annual fall festival is the only fund-raising event at the B.F. Grady school and last year about 7,000 tickets were sold with the school collecting about $20,000 from the ticket sales, arts, crafts, food, games and contests during the festival. The kindergarten through ninth grade school uses the proceeds to supplement the funds from the Duplin County Board of Education to purchase supplies and educational and athletic equipment. Pictured above, teachers at Grady collect ticket sales proceeds from students.

Annual Grady Fall Festival

Students at B.F. Grady School have begun to turn in ticket sales money for the 1983 Fall Festival to be at their school October 1. According to B.F. Grady Principal Paul Britt, more than 5,000 tickets are expected to be sold.

The annual fall festival is the only fund-raising event that B.F. Grady school sponsors and last year $20,000 was collected from ticket sales and arts, crafts, food and various games and contests, Britt said. Approximately 7,000 tickets were sold in 1982 and over 1,000 people attended the festival at Grady. The B.F. Grady school is made up of kindergarten through ninth grade.

Proceeds from past fall festivals have been used to purchase items the county could not afford to include in the annual Grady budget.

Britt said. And, he said, some of the items included an activity bus, ceiling fans for each classroom, additional supply funds, and this year part of the festival proceeds will go toward purchasing instructional television equipment.

The festival will begin this year at 4 p.m. with a barbecue supper, hot dogs and baked goods. A spook house will open after dark and other festival events will include bingo, the birthday game and a cake walk. One of the final events is the womanless beauty contest. The festival finale will be the crowning of the top male and female student ticket sales winners.
