

Reunited After 58 Years

Sunday, Sept. 25, 1983. Paul Dewey Jenkins and Clelle Winkler Bell were reunited at the home of Paul Dewey with his wife, children and grandchildren and her two daughters.

Paul Dewey and Clelle had not seen each other since 1925, when Clelle was put in an orphanage in Greensboro and later adopted. She grew up in the mountains of North Carolina. She attended Appalachian State Teacher's College. After college she joined the Coast Guard for two years. In 1950, Clelle married James Oscar Bell of South Carolina. They have made their home in Charlotte for 33 years and have three children.

Clelle's oldest daughter was sent to Kinston due to her job and while she was there looked up the Jenkins' to see who might be related to her. In June, she found her Uncle Paul Dewey and Clelle have been writing and phoning each other since then, and finally the children made arrangements for them to meet for the first time in 58 years.

Welcome Supper For Dr. Little

An evening to welcome Dr. and Mrs. Ed Little has been planned for Tuesday, Oct. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pink Hill School cafeteria.

Dinner and entertainment will be provided for the coat and tie event. The admission is $5 per person and tickets may be obtained from W.A. Avery at Avery Furniture Co. Everyone present will be given the opportunity to greet Dr. and Mrs. Little and meet other physicians practicing with Dr. Little.

Barbecue

The Pink Hill Rescue Squad will hold a barbecue pork and chicken dinner on Saturday, Oct. 22 to benefit their equipment fund. At 11 a.m., the serving will begin and last until they are sold out. Any donations would be helpful, especially cakes. Other items needed include pigs, chickens, plates, forks, cabbage, charcoal, wood, sugar, salad dressing, vinegar, meal, salt, lighter fluid, potatoes, ketchup, etc. All help will be gratefully appreciated.

If you can help, please give a reply to Sue Hamilton at 568-4526.

Park Bench Donated

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Stroud have donated a park bench to be placed under the shade trees across from the new medical center. The town of Pink Hill painted the bench and the Pink Hill

United Methodist Church granted permission for the placement on church property. It is hoped the bench can serve some enjoyment to folks visiting the doctors offices or while shopping in the area.

Harper Reunion

All relatives and descendants are invited to the first annual Jim and Lucy Harper family reunion to be held at the V.F.W. Club at Pink Hill on Sunday, Oct. 9 at 1 p.m. Please bring a covered dish and tea or drinks.

We Care Meets

We Care, a parent support group for those who have experienced the death of an infant or child, continues to meet every second and fourth Wednesday, from 8-9 p.m. at the Duplin-Sampson

Area Mental Health office in Clinton. For more information, call Kathryn Collins, 592-5791; Nora Butler, 296-1851; or Arlene Cassedy, 293-7772.

Pink Hill Leukemia Drive

The Pink Hill Leukemia Drive will be dedicated to one of its local persons, Chilton Douglas Murphy. Chilton has had leukemia for about a year. The first of this week he went to Chapel Hill to be prepped for the kidney dialysis machine. It is pretty certain that he will be put on the machine around Nov. 7. About every four weeks he has had to go to Kenansville for blood transfusions. His wife, Nan, will be trained to operate the kidney dialysis machine at home.

Chilton is a native of the Pink Hill area and has lived most of his life in this vicinity. Many might not know him if you live in the B.F. Grady or other parts of Lenoir County. But you will know at least one of his children: Mrs. Cookie Murphy Turner (Keith) Miss Penny Jo Murphv. Hal Murphy, and Miss Chilly Murphy. His mother, Mrs. Nancy Murphy, resides in Kinston. He is the son of the late Eddie Murphy.

The Bike-Walk-A-Thon be held Saturday, Oct. 15 at the Pink Hill First Citizens Bank. It will begin at 9 a.m. and the rain date is Oct. 22. If you are late, come on out. There will be supervision along the way all the time. The Pink Hill Scouts have agreed to man the 5-mile mark and have water waiting for a refresher.

The co-chairmen look forward to the great fellowship along with everyone working for a worthy cause. Co-chairmen include: Mrs. Donna Benton-Woodington School; Paul Britt - B.F. Grady School; Mrs. Pam McLaurin - Pink Hill School; Mrs. Cookie Murphy Turner - Deep Run area; and Mrs. Mary Ann Bvrd. Mrs. Pat Turner and Mrs. Linda Westbrook, Pink Hill area.

The more who participate, the bigger boost we can give Chilton. It will be a youth-adult Bike-Walk-A-Thon. If you can't ride a bike, we encourage you to pick up a pledge flier and join in the event. Don't shut your door, heart, or pocketbook to any who come calling. Give and give big.

So often we feel these tragedies happen in China, Europe or New York, and it will not happen here. But, it does happen right at home.

You are not giving to help anyone working for the drive, but to help others less fortunate. Many little ones and adults alike will suffer with leukemia if we do not block it out. It does take money for research and we know everyone is going to do his part. Remember, it doesn't respect the rich or poor, young nor old, nor does it care which race. Let's all give and give big. Remember we have an opportunity to prove to Chilton we are going to be pulling for him all the way.

The prizes are nice. A Leukemia Society T-shirt will be given to all who turn in $25 to $49.99, a gym bag to all who turn in $50 to $74.99, and all who turn in $75 or more receive both. The participant who turns in the most money will receive a trophy regardless of whether you walk or ride. The one who gets the largest list of donors but the least money will receive a plaque.

Don't forget Oct. 15 at 9 a.m. at the First Citizens Bank in Pink Hill and contribute to the Leukemia Drive dedicated to Chilton Murphy.

Kinston Arts Council Hosts Street-A-Fair

Street-A-Fair, produced by the Community Council for the Arts (Kinston Arts Council) will be held Sunday, Oct. 9 from 1-6 p.m. in downtown Kinston.

This is the third annual Street-A-Fair, an outdoor celebration of the arts in Lenoir County. The festive's planning committee is anticipating an attendance of 15,000 based on previous years. Featured during the five-hour framework are four outdoor stages with performances by the Second Marine Division Jazz Ensemble, Showstopper, Silver Wings, All Out for Jesus, Suzuki Players, Finishing Touch, Doc Stroud Martial Arts, The New Dixie Grass, Kinston Community Band, Jackie Howell School of Dance, the Doris Whitfield School of Dance, and much more. Over 50 artists will be selling homemade crafts and art work. Bring your wallets. These items ARE for sale.

The Children's Area will feature many activities, two entertainment stages, a snake show, plus special guests Witney The Hobo, a life-sized Raggedy Ann doll and Smokey The Bear.

Special attractions include a hot air balloon show, Ultra Light aircraft show, parachuting, the Lenoir County Concerned Bikers Association, and the city of Kinston Fire Department in a car-fire simulation.

Over 50 civic clubs will line the streets selling plenty of food.

Come join the Arts Council in this grand affair to remember.

Maternity Services Offered By Health Department

Maternity services will begin at Duplin County Health Department on Oct. 3, it was announced by Joe L. Costin, director.

It is vital to pregnant women that they seek health care early in their pregnancy, either from a private physician or a public health clinic, Costin said. Maternity services at the health department, he continued, will include a medical examination, nutritional counseling, prenatal education and lab work. Dr. M.I. Ammar, obstetrician gynecologist, who practices in Kenansville, will be the attending physician in the maternity clinic and will examine each new patient. Any problem pregnancies will receive special attention and evaluation by Dr. Ammar.

Dr. Ammar will be assisted by health department nurses. Two local nurses have already received special training in maternity care at Guilford County Health Department in Greensboro.

High quality, early and continuous prenatal care can decrease a new baby's risk of death or handicap and can assure all babies a healthy start in life. Every mother and child deserves and should have the best health care possible. Any pregnant woman in living in Duplin County can receive this care from a private physician or at the health department. The maternity clinic will be held on Wednesday afternoons. Call 296-0441 for information and appointment.
