

James Kenan To Host Wallace-Rose Hill In Game Of The Year

JK defeats ND 14-7 last Friday night

James Kenan High School football eleven, unbeaten in ECC play, with a 5-0 record, will host the Wallace-Rose Hill Bulldogs, also unbeaten in ECC, with a 5-0 mark, square off at Tiger Field this Friday night in what could be for the conference championship. Both teams are tied for first in the EC 2-A Conference race. It is all at stake this week as Coach Jack Holley's Dawgs, ranked fourth in the east, come to town with an outstanding football eleven to do battle with the mighty Tigers of Coach Billy Byrd. It will be an outstanding defensive battle with the team making the least mistakes coming out the winner.

James Kenan had to fight right down to the final gun last Friday to stop always-tough North Duplin 14-7 in one of the best JK games of the year. The Tigers showed a lot of character in edging the fighting Green Machine in a real defensive struggle to the bitter end. James Kenan's defense held the big rugged Rebel offense twice inside the 5-yard line and contained Anthony Jernigan, an ECC standout, most of the game. The Tigers' defense was led by Kelvin Bell, Thomas Faison, Ray Cooke and Derwin Bell.

North Duplin took the lead in the second quarter on a three-yard run by Jernigan climax a 53-yard drive. Tommy Potter added the PAT and a 7-0 Reb. lead. James Kenan tied the count just before the half on a 14-yard dart by halfback Mickey Faison. Thomas Faison split the uprights and it was a 7-7 halftime score. Both teams battled on about even grounds until five minutes was left in the fourth quarter and Chuck Anderson intercepted a Rebel pass inside North Duplin's ten and returned it 52 yards. JK scored in three plays with Faison darting 16 yards for the winning TD. Thomas Faison added the final point to give James Kenan a 14-7 win.

East Duplin lost a real heartbreaker against Hobbton Friday with the Panthers lead in the game 13-12 with only 45 seconds left. Panther Kirk Thigpen had just returned a punt 95 yards to give ED the 13-12 lead. Hobbton's little classy Dan Armwood dashed six yards for the Wildcat 20-13 ECC win.

Wallace-Rose Hill did a little warming up for the James Kenan Tigers by blasting the winless Spartans of Union 64-0 in another East Central game. In another very important EC battle, the Blue Devils of South Lenoir edged the Leopards of Lakewood in a real thriller 7-6. Support your school. Joe C.

National Textile Week In State

"American Textiles: Quality People, Quality Products" is the National Textile Week theme in North Carolina this year. The fourth annual week-long observance begins

Saturday, Oct. 22, with the Textile Bowl football game between N.C. State and Clemson universities. The game will be at Clemson and halftime ceremonies will include scholarship fund presentations by the respective textile foundations of North Carolina and South Carolina.

N.C. Textile Manufacturers Association Textile Week Chairperson Nancy Schrum of Carolina Mills, Maiden, said three state events also are ready. Monday, the 24th, the first annual Textile Golf Tournament will be held at Raintree Country Club in Charlotte. Wednesday at the Bryan Center in Greensboro will be the Futuristic Fiber Fashion Show, and Friday through Sunday, the final day, will be the Textile Fishing Tournament on the surf and offshore at Carolina Beach.

Much emphasis will be placed on making presentations to fourth grade students throughout the state by textile executives, in addition to plant tours for older students, textile projects displays at shopping malls, luncheon meetings for city and county officials, N.C. legislators, educators, clergymen and textile employees. Advertisements also will be placed in newspapers, on billboards and over the radio.

The fashion show will be conducted by the Manmade Fiber Producers Association and will include a host of TV's Hour Magazine, Pat George, American designer fashions will be shown, along with futuristic garments, many of which were featured on the Today Show.

The fishing tournament is a contest for catching the most king mackerel from boats or the surf.

North Carolina joins Alabama, Georgia and South

Carolina to stress the national importance of textiles. The logotype uses the same red and blue fibrous material to play in the game. Charity moved the ball well most of the game but couldn't score. Each time they threatened the Wildcat defense buckled down and

Charity Defeats Smith

The E.E. Smith Wildcats lost their first game for the season last week to Charity by a 6-0 score. It was a defensive struggle for 3 1/2 quarters until Charity scored on a fourth down 16-yard pass with approximately 3 1/2 minutes to play in the game.

Charity moved the ball well most of the game but couldn't score. Each time they threatened the Wildcat defense buckled down and held them and on one occasion recovered a fumble inside the 15-yard line. E.E. Smith couldn't muster any kind of offense as Charity held them and Kenny Hooks in check the whole game.

Outstanding defensive players for the game were Craig Smith, Kenny Hooks, Stephen Pittman, Curtis Hooks, Aaron Lawson, Chris Grady and Jonathan Steele.

Next game for Smith will be at North Duplin Oct. 19 at 4 p.m.

Records: E.E. Smith, 2-1 and Charity, 1-1-1.
