

Carolina Telephone Scholarships

James Sprunt Technical College announces the selection of Ruth A. Carlton and Arnold Dunn as recipients of the newly-established Carolina Telephone scholarship program scholarships.

The two-year scholarship program, established by Carolina Telephone and Telegraph of Tarboro, provides a total of 52 $500 scholarships in 1983-84, and again in 1984-85. JSTC is one of 26 community colleges in the system selected by CTT to participate in the scholarship program.

Ruth Carlton

The program is to provide assistance to minority students and workers who have been displaced from their jobs and are retraining for new skills.

Ruth Carlton, a Dean's List student, is beginning her second year this quarter in the executive secretary program. She is a resident of Warsaw.

Arnold Dunn is a returning freshman in the college's general education program. He resides in Kenansville.

JSTC Students Listed In Who's Who

The 1984 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges will include the names of 21 students from James Sprunt Technical College who have been selected as national outstanding campus leaders.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,500 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.
