

HCA COUNTRY BAZAAR - Harrells Christian Academy will have their 1983 Country Bazaar on Nov. 19. The doors will open at noon. There will be shops of all kinds. The wood shop will have handmade items. The General Store will feature handmade baskets, chimes and many other items. You will get the Christmas spirit and from there go to the Children's Shop to do your shopping. There will be totebags, bookbags, beach bags, pillows, animals, lap bags, dolls and beds. The Needlework Shop is packed with pillows, hand towels, framed needlework, wall hangings, quilts, afghans, cross-stitch and candlewicking. Buy your Thanksgiving goodies in our bake shop and Farmers Market. The teachers shop will be the pride of the teachers and parents as they see the things their own children have made for them to buy. Two added attractions this year are the turkey toss where you can win your Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys and the Jail where you can have your favorite or least favorite person arrested and confined for $1. and someone will have to pay a $2 bail to free them. The delicious chicken barbeque will be served from 11-6:30 for $3 in the cafeteria. At 7 p.m., the students will perform in the auditorium, after which the Queen and King will be crowned. At 7:30 the auction begins. There will be many very valuable items for sale. Plan to come and spend the day at Harrells Christian Academy.

Kenansville Cracks Down On Late Taxes

Delinquent town taxpayers may find the town collecting their valuables or selling their property to obtain the

The Town Board last week adopted a delinquent tax collection system that will permit the town to attach property of delinquent taxpayers six months after the tax claims are advertised. Under the "in rem" system, the town can attach property without going through court foreclosure proceedings. The theory is that the tax claim is against the property. The town must file its tax claims with the clerk of court as in the past, but it can seize property in lieu of taxes after the appropriate notice and time without going through court proceedings.

Duplin County and the town of Beulaville operate under this plan of collecting delinquent taxes. Beulaville was the first to adopt the plan in the county.

In other business, the board voted to pay town department heads Christmas bonuses of $200 and fulltime town employees $100

Board members expressed dissatisfaction with the town's allocation from the Kenansville Alcoholic Bever-

Murphy Named To Special Commission

Representative Wendell H. Murphy of Duplin County has been appointed by House Speaker Liston B. Ramsey to special commission to study the regulation and taxation of financial institutions in North Carolina.

The legislative research commission study grew out of a bill filed in the 1983 General Assembly which noted that laws regulating and taxing commercial banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions "are not uniformly applicable." The commission will review the entire industry in an effort to arrive at a uniform policy.

Murphy, a Rose Hill agribusinessman and farmer, represents Duplin and Jones counties in the 19th House

Wallace Students Get 'Involved'

Four Duplin County students were among more than 110 young people who participated in annual Youth Involvement Day activities in Youth Involvement Day allows students to see how state government operates while it puts government officials in touch with the opinions of today'sa young people. The activities, which are sponsored by the N.C. State Youth Council, included an address from the governor and a workshop on government. Among the participants were DeAudra S. Robinson, Jim Martin Futrell, Joel Robert Fox and Karen D. Hanchey, all of Wallace.

age Control Store. The town received $3,850 from the store for the last fiscal year. Towns receive 55 percent of ABC store-distributed profits while Duplin County gets 45 percent. The county received $3,150.

Mayor Donald Suttles objected to the 13 percent pay raise awarded ABC store manager Ivy Bowden and the 7 percent raise given his assistant, Ed Price. Bowden's annual salary now is $14,400, and Price's is

Commissioner Fennell suggested if the store doesn't provide any more return than it has, it should be closed. The store reported a profit of $18,449 for the past fiscal year. It distributed $7,000 of the profit to the county and town. It had sales of $284,000 in the past fiscal year.

It has assets of $93,520, including cash and investments of $27,000 and an inventory of $37,000. Since opening in 1966, the store has distributed $98,450 in profits to the town and $80,550 to the county.

好得好得以自然有好有好有好有好有好有好有好有好好好好 Pre-Christmas Gold Sale 14K Gold & Gold Entire Stock Filled Earrings 14K Chains 30% off 50% off 14K Charms 40% off 14K Gold 14K Gold Floating Hearts 7mm Beads $1.69 99¢ 14K Puffed Hearts 14K Sanddollar $6.95 14K Gold 2mm Rope Bracelet Reg. $11000 8ALE Buddy's Jewelry

W. Cumberland St., Dunn

Phone: 892-1827

建设设施的设备的设备的设备的设备的设备的设备的设备的设备

"TURKEY DELIGHT"

Get a FREE Thanksgiving Turkey

N. Center St., Mount Olive

Phone: 658-3258

DCAC's New Board Of Directors

The Duplin County Arts Council is proud to present its new Board of Directors beginning with our new officers: Gary Sanderson, president; Willie Gillespie, vicepresident; Nancy Jordan. treasurer; and Merle Creech, secretary/executive director.

The new slate of officers and members with town affiliations are as follows:

Thank You

Kenansville Town Board for another four years.

Kenansville to the best of my ability.

TO THE CITIZENS OF KENANSVILLE

Thank you for allowing me to serve on the

I will continue to represent the citizens of

My Sincere Thanks

Betty Long

Randy Albertson, Beulaville; Gene Ballard, Kenansville-Pink Hill; Cecil Beaman, Wallace; Merle Creech, sec .ex. director; Helen Dobson-Rose Hill/Chinquapin; Willie Gillespie, vice-pres., Kenansville/Charity; Janice Grady - Albertson/Rose Hill; Jack Ireland - Kenansville;

Charles and Carolyn Ingram

Kenansville; Anne Taylor, Faison; Robert Ray Thomas, Beulaville; C. Coolidge Turner, Albertson; Kay Williamson, Kenansville. "We are pleased and honored to have such fine Kenansville/Warsaw; representation from these people. They represent many areas of life and location throughout Duplin County.

Gladly they will receive your suggestions and will talk to you about Arts Council doings," said Mrs. Creech. When asked about the importance of the DCAC, Gary Sanderson says, "The types of activities that the Arts Council provides for the youngsters in our school system makes it worthwhile

Nancy Jordan - treasurer -

Wallace; Judy Mure, Warsaw; Mary Porter, Wallace;

Gary Sanderson, president -

my time on the council seems worth it all." Willie Gillespie, vice-president, says, "My involvement with the Arts Council has been a real educational experience for for me. I have seen that glow in so many young eyes that me in that it has given me insight into the many benefits it affords our community. I have been able to help in selection and coordination of activities of the council. In so doing, I have been directly involved in culturally enriching experiences which I consider invaluable. Most importantly, my AC membership has given me opportunity to help select activities which are of benefit and interest to all segments of our community." Nancy Jordan, treasurer, says, "I believe one is happier if they are well-rounded and can appreciate all aspects of life. I enjoy observing beautiful things and listening to others' ideas and opinions.

DCAC Entertainment Scheduled

The Duplin County Arts Council invites you to a show opening of Sarah Farrior's artworks at the Wallace Library. Sarah is a senior art student at East Carolina University. The show will include acrylic, oils and mixed media. It will be on Sunday, Nov. 27 at 3 p.m. Plan on attending.

The Duplin County Arts Council is proud to present the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University Choir to the public

