FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - In celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grady of Albertson were honored Sunday, Oct. 30, with a reception at the Pleasant View Presbyterian Church in Albertson. Hosting the occasion were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ted K. Grady of Albertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Grady of Seven Springs. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grady of Albertson. After signing the register guests were presented to the receiving line consisting of the honored couple along with their children and their spouses. A table of refreshments was highlighted with a candelabra with golden candles and bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. The three-tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Virginia Harper of Albertson and served by Mrs. Tammy Quinn, granddaughter, and Mrs. Mary Evelyn Daley, niece of the honored couple. The punch was poured by Misses Camille Grady and Sabrina Grady, granddaughters. Other refreshments included miniature ham biscuits, homemade mints, mixed nuts, pickle slices and ribbon sandwiches. Assisting were Mrs. Jean Rouse, Mrs. Edna Smith and Mrs. Nellie Davis and her daughters, Lori and Dee, of Albertson. Presiding in the gift room were Miss Christa Grady, granddaughter, Mrs. Kay Williams and Miss Judy Smith. Of special interest was the picture room which featured numerous family pictures and mementoes. Decorations throughout the church included baskets of greenery and arrangements of golden flowers and candles. Good-byes were spoken to Mr. and Mrs. Earl King of Kinston. Carlton Grady, grandson, Don Grady, Scott Spence and Jimmy Quinn assisted with the parking and presided at-large. Miss Michele Grady, granddaughter, was the photographer. Approximately 100 friends and relatives called during the afternoon to congratulate the couple and to wish them well.

Along the Way
By Emily Killeto

The growth of Warsaw drew the attention of the DUPLIN TIMES newspaper staff during 1940. Last week Along the Way began a review of a series of articles about Warsaw merchants published by the DUPLIN TIMES in 1940.

The merchants and Warsaw Chamber of Commerce worked hard to offer attractive businesses and bargains for their customers. The efforts to make Warsaw a thriving business center brought the Duplin-Sampson Hog Marketing Association and better transportation with the paving of a road to Wallace.

Last week's Along the Way featured communication and transportation centers in Warsaw and the department stores. Featured businesses were the American Railway Express, United States Post Office, bus terminal, Atlantic Coast Line Terminal and Western Union office, Tidewater Power Company, Katz Department Store, Brook's Store, The Hub department store and Jones Department Store.

Continuing the review of the articles on Warsaw businesses, the March 21, 1940 issue featured grocers and markets. The 1940 Grocery and Market carried a variety of items from canned vegetables, local produce, meats, and livestock feeds as well as seeds and some fertilizer. Warsaw had five grocery markets and each store bought a great deal of local produce, meats and eggs which helped add dollars to the farm family income during the lean years of the depression.

City Grocery and Market was established in 1939 by J.R. Parker of Clinton. Parker offered both native and western brand meats and carried local produce. West Grocery and Market was established in 1918 by J.J. West. The grocery was the first market to offer fresh meat daily. Parkers Grocery and Market was founded in 1920 by Earl Moore. Moore died ten years later and after his widow remarried in 1932 the market name was changed. Moore's widow married Sanford Packer. Ellis' Store opened in 1929 on the outskirts of Warsaw.

Ellis West, the store owner, moved his business to Main Street in 1933. The only national chain grocery market in Warsaw was the A & P. The chain store was established in Warsaw about 1926 by Bob Lominack and in 1934 Sam Bartlett took over.

Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Sanders of Wilmington visited Mrs. Ben Williamson a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Ellis Vestal accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Moses Farmer of Warsaw to Fayetteville to the Shriners Circus Friday. Others from here who went to the circus included Mrs. David McKay and Kelli and Will, also Mrs. George Garner and children, Elwood and John Dail.
