Murphy Benefit

A benefit in the form of a barbecue dinner for Chilton Murphy, leukemia patient, will be held Saturday. The dinner will be served from the Pink Hill Fire Department.

Presently Chilton and his wife Nan are required to make three trips to Chapel Hill each week for the benefit of learning to operate a kidney machine. All donations will be appreciated. For additional information call Hilda Grace Smith at 568-4460.

Pink Hill Town Board Meets

John Worthington, a resident of Park Circle, appeared before the Nov. board meeting. He reported sand accumulation that is currently clogging a pond on the Worthington property. The board agreed to open a ditch to alleviate the problem.

Ronnie K. Heath, fire chief, reported a total of seven fire calls for the month - two standbys for a wreck, two public services, two false alarms and one woods fire. He also issued a slate of officers for 1984-85, Chief Ronnie K. Heath; Assistant Chief Preston Bryant, and

Captain Jerry Tyndall. Heath also announced several projects that the local fire department would like to undertake. They included building a cook house as close as possible to the present building, asked permission to remodel the inside of the station by building a kitchen, rest rooms, etc., permission to store Pirsch fire engine, asked to condemn old mill house owned by D.H. Taylor, and finally, announced that the building would be used on Saturday, Nov. 19 for a benefit for Chilton Murphy.

IN MEMORY OF BOBBY S. KEENE WHO PASSED AWAY NOV. 14, 1982

It's just a year ago today God called and took you away. It grieved our hearts to let you go. But God loved you more we know. We miss you so, your smiling face. And no one else can fill your place. But in our hearts you'll always stay. We'll meet again some happy day. To be with you on that beautiful shore. Where pain and sorrow is no more.

With Love
Mother, Ella Koonce and Family
