

train. The bridal headpiece was a lace covered portrait hat accented with a brim border of seed pearls and soft lace scalloped edge. Soft gathered nylon illusion formed the band with back satin rose center from which were attached double tiers of nylon illusion. She carried a nosegay of white roses accented with lavender roses.

Paula Thigpen and Frannie Jo Blizzard were honorary bridesmaids. The maid of honor was Belinda Miller, sister of the bride. She wore a formal-length gown of lavender crepe. Benita M. Campbell, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Patty Brown. The flower girl was Leeann Rollins of Cary, cousin of the bride. They wore formal length gowns of lavender taffeta and each carried a basket of assorted lavender flowers.

The father of the groom served as best man. The groomsmen were Greg Tripp, uncle of the groom; Gordon Campbell, brother-in-law of the bride; and David Forrest, brother of the groom. Ringbearer was Clark Duff, cousin of the bride. They wore black tuxedos with lavender cummerbunds and bow-ties. They wore lavender rose boutonnières and the groom chose to wear his Army uniform.

Edgar J. Wells provided both traditional and contemporary music. Sherry Forrest, sister of the groom, sang "Two Less Lonely People in the World" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Lillian H. Grady of Kenansville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Miller chose a formal-length gown of light grey. The groom's mother chose a formal-length burgundy gown. Both wore a purple orchid corsage.

Reception

On Friday, Nov. 11, at eight-thirty in the evening, following the wedding rehearsal, Bridget and Thomas were honored with a reception given by their families at the Hallsville Presbyterian Church fellowship hall. The guests were greeted by Tammy Brown. After the bride-couple-elect cut their three-tiered cake and made their toasts, Janette Duff, great aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake and Pearl James served punch. Janice and Leland Sanderson were in charge of maintaining the table with delicacies and they were assisted by Rosie Rhodes, Bruce Schooler, Gilda Schooler, Patty Brown, Belinda Miller and Lillie Kelly.

Shower

The bride was honored with a lingerie shower given by her sisters on Sept. 30 at the home of her parents. Light refreshments were served.

After returning from a honeymoon at Atlantic Beach, the bride and groom will be honored with miscellaneous showers in each of their communities.

Silver Streakers

The regular monthly meeting of the Silver Streakers was held Monday night in the fellowship hall of the local Baptist Church. Mrs. Ellis Vestal welcomed the 30 present and introduced the entertainers. They were Billy Knowles on the pedal-steel guitar; Bobby Brinson of Trenton on the guitar; Lesley Albertson of Kinston on the banjo and Herbert Adcock of Snow Hill as pianist and vocalist. They led the group in an old-timey gospel sing. After the program, the refreshments committee, composed of Sally Tyndall, Wilma Pate and Nannie Brinson, served cheese wafers, sausage balls, cookies and punch.

Eastern Star

The bi-monthly meeting of Kenansville Chapter #215, OES, was held Tuesday night. Joyce Williams served as worthy matron and Kermit Williams as worthy patron in the absence of those two officers. After the ritualistic opening and flag ceremony, a short business session was held. This was followed by a Thanksgiving program presented by Louise K. Boney and Celia Stroud. A social hour followed during which time Celia Stroud and her husband, J.B., served cake and punch. Members were reminded that the next meeting on Dec. 13 will be the Christmas program.

Forrest - Miller Wedding

Bridget Lynn Miller and Thomas Lawrence Forrest exchanged their wedding vows in a Saturday afternoon candlelight ceremony at three o'clock in the Hallsville Presbyterian Church, Beulaville. The Reverend Matt Highfield, pastor of the bride, and the Reverend Frank Flowers, pastor of the groom, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Beulaville. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas "Tommy" Forrest and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tripp and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas Forrest, all of Ayden.

Upon entering the church, Faye Tripp, aunt of the groom, greeted the guests and presented them with a program of the ceremony. The register table was draped with a white satin cloth covered with lace. It was adorned with a lavender flower arrangement accompanied with a candle, a second bridal bouquet, rice bags and the guest book. The church was decorated with a cathedral candelabrum accented with lavender tapers and flowers, accompanied with two spiral candelabrum, a double kneeling bench and ferns. The pews were marked with lavender mums.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white formal-length gown of sheer organza and Alencon lace. It was designed with an empire waist with matching lace band, medallion lace front bodice, see-thru neckline with lace medallion center design and ring collar accented with scattered seed pearls, straight sheer sleeves decorated with Alencon lace and lace cuffs with scalloped edges and seed pearls. A full A-line skirt of organza was bordered with double tiers of wide lace which flowed softly into a chapel-length
