

JAYCEE CALENDARS BEING DISTRIBUTED - The 1984 Jaycee calendars are currently being distributed. The distribution began last week with the presentation of the first calendar to Dr. Carl Price of James Sprunt Technical College. The Kenansville

Duplin General Hospital Honors Retiree

On Nov. 22 a tea hosted by the Duplin General Hospital nursing supervisory personnel was held in honor of Mrs. Sara P. Wells, R.N., head nurse of the second south medical-surgical patient care unit. Mrs. Wells retired on this date. She was presented a Florence

Nightingale plaque by the nursing supervisory staff. The tea was attended by personnel from the different departments at DGH. Sara Price Wells, a native of Charlotte, attended East Carolina Teacher's College for two years and graduated from the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Charlotte with a diploma in nursing. Prior to her marriage to William Sprunt Wells of Wallace, Mrs. Wells worked at Presbyterian Hospital for five years as a nursing supervisor. On June 13, 1973, she began working full-time at DGH as the head nurse on the second south unit.

Mrs. Wells, widowed in 1982, continues to reside on Route 1, Wallace. She has two daughters: Lillian of Wallace and Peggy of Columbus, Miss. The birth of her second grandchild is anticipated this month. Mrs. Wells' immediate retirement plans are to travel and spend some long-awaited time with relatives. Her first trip will be to Mississippi to welcome the arrival of her new grandchild.

Sara P. Wells will be missed at DGH. The strength of her nursing leadership contributed positively to quality patient care. It is the sincere hope of her nursing associates that she is not retiring from the profession of nursing, but only from a position.

Sara P. Wells R.N.

Grove Church Christmas Services

Grove Presbyterian Church invites the entire community to the Christmas Eve service to be held Saturday night, Dec. 24 at 7:30 p.m. The service is a joint effort of the Kenansville Baptist, United Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

What does the "glee" in glee club mean? Glee is unaccompanied songs for three or more solo voices.

Kenansville News

Past Matrons and Patrons
The Past Matrons and Patrons Club of Kenansville Chapter #215, OES, met at the Rose Hill Restaurant for their annual Christmas party. J.B. Stroud, worthy patron, welcomed the 16 present and asked the blessing. A dutch supper was enjoyed by those present as follows: J.B. and Celia Stroud, Amos and Edna E. Brinson, Walter and Pannie Rhodes, Kermit and Joyce Williams, Robert and Doris Chestnutt, Louise K. Boney, Thelma B. Murphy, Ruby G. Newton, Sally Tyndall, Margaret Johnson and Dora Evans. Prior to adjournment, Christmas gifts were exchanged from a decorated tree which centered the dining area.

Village Duplicate Bridge
The Village Duplicate Bridge Club held its first quarterly club championship game recently. Kay Autry directed the Howell movement. Special blue ribbon certificates were issued to the following winners: First - Chris Langley and Ben McBride of Goldsboro; Second - Ann Robinson and Beaty Moore of Clinton; Third - Pony Quinn and Morris Grady of Beulaville.

Duplicate bridge is played every Monday morning at Brown's Restaurant in Kenansville. All bridge players are invited to play.

T. & C. Club
Mrs. Eloise K. Ryder was hostess for the Town and Country Bridge Club Tuesday night with Mesdames Virginia Penney, Mattie Barbee, Louise Mitchell and Sue Neil Lentz as additional guests.

Club high score prize was captured by Mrs. J.J. Wells and by Mrs. Penney for the visiting players. For refreshments, Mrs. Ryder, assisted by Mrs. Lentz, served prism cake, hot spiced tea and toasted pecans.

Silver Streakers
The senior citizens of Kenansville who are known as the Silver Streakers, will meet in the fellowship hall of the Kenansville United Methodist Church on Monday, Dec. 18th at 3 p.m., according to Mrs. W.M.

Ingram, program chairman. She will be assisted by Nancy Williamson, Merle Creech and Jack Ireland in a special Christmas program.

Cluster Supper
The annual Cluster men's and women's Christmas party of the Pink Hill area was in the form of a seafood supper at Britts, near the Scotts Store. Twenty-five from Kenansville, representing Grove Presbyterian Church, were there last Monday. They included: Troy and Mary Mullis, David and Ann Dickey, Joe Chitty, Doris Simmons, Rocky and Jill Long, Martha Sitterson, Louise Mitchell, Mary Jessup, Ruth Wells, Arthur Wood, Roscoe and Ruby Jones, Annie Catherine Rhodes, and two guests, Viola Quinn and Lib Allen. Bob and Ruth Jones, Victoria Stephens, Elliott and Doris Merritt, Frances Stevens and Mae Spicer.

A musical program was presented by the Longs and David Dickey accompanied by Dianna Judge. Sue Rogers also played Christmas carols for the group to sing. Gifts were exchanged prior to departure.

Personals
