

Mrs. Black - Dr. Holland Wed In Private Ceremony

Mrs. Frances Ward Black and Dr. Victor Bradshaw Holland Jr. were married on Christmas Day, December 25, 1983, in a private ceremony at 2:30 p.m. at the home of the bride, 210 North Cannon Boulevard, Kannapolis.

The bride, the former Frances Ward of Mount Olive, is the daughter of Mrs. Elmer Goodson and the late Dee Ward. Dr. Holland is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bradshaw Holland of Norfolk, Virginia.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend James Stanley Bellamy, minister of Trinity United Methodist Church.

Musical selections were provided by the bride's sister, Mrs. Avis Goodson Hammond of Greensboro and the bride's daughter, Janet Ward Black of Chapel Hill.

Victor Bradshaw Holland III served as best man for his father. Janet Ward Black attended her mother as maid of honor.

The bride was attired in a champagne crepe dress with long sleeves and mandarin collar. She carried a bouquet of orchids, a gift from Clyde Eugene Crocker Jr. who grew them at his Bradford Farm home in Concord.

A retired English teacher with the Concord city schools, the bride serves as chairman of the 400th Anniversary Committee for Cabarrus County, having been appointed by Governor Hunt. She is also regional chairman of the Roanoke Island Historical Society of North Carolina for Cabarrus, Rowan, Anson, Mecklenberg, Stanley, Iredell and Union counties.

The groom holds the Master's in chemistry from North Carolina State University in Raleigh and the PhD in chemistry from Vanderbilt. He taught chemistry at NCSU prior to coming to Kannapolis. He currently is director of laboratories for Cannon Mills Company.

Family members attending other than those named were the bride's sister, Miss Doty Goodson of Orange City, Florida; the groom's daughter and son-in-law,

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Whicker Shelton and their children, Brad and Holly Shelton; the groom's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Victor Bradshaw Holland III and son, Victor Bradshaw Holland IV. A friend of the family, Harry Lee Pence of Chapel Hill was present.

The bride's housekeeper, Mrs. John Barrett, served wedding cake and punch following the ceremony.

The bride is the niece of Mrs. Mattie Sadler Barbee of Kenansville.

Dinner

Mrs. Black and Dr. Holland were entertained at dinner Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Whicker Shelton on Dogwood Boulevard. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bradshaw Holland III. As an honor gift, the couple received the Lennox 1983 Colonial Christmas Wreath Plate "Maryland, the Third Colony," depicting the lands along the Chesapeake chartered by England as our third colony. "Christmas 1983" is the third in a limited edition series of thirteen fine china plates. The plates will be issued annually in the same sequence as the establishment of the colonies. Handcrafted in ivory-toned Lenox china and decorated with 24-karat gold, each plate in the series will be produced only during the year of its issue.

The menu consisted of chicken breast, rice pilaf, deviled eggs, curried fruit, cherry yum-yum, rolls, coffee and tea.

The groom's grandchildren, Victor Holland, Holly Shelton and Brad Shelton were present also.

Mrs. Black - Dr. Holland Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wall of Williamsburg Road in Concord entertained Mrs. Baxter Black and Dr. Victor Bradshaw Holland Jr. at a dinner party on Friday evening. The bride-elect received a corsage of freezer and D'arbrutus imported from Holland. Guests were served buffet-style from a table centered with a live tree symbolizing the tree of life. The menu consisted of chicken tetrazini, green beans, corn, hot clam dip, pickled peaches and relish tray. Heavenly hash pie was served for dessert. Homemade rolls were made into love knots.

The couple received a brass pitcher as an honor gift. In toasting the couple, Rudy Hardy quoted 1st Corinthians 13.

Luncheon honors Mrs. Black Mrs. Willis Campbell and Mrs. James Carroll Goodman of Concord and Mrs. Charles E. Rimer of Kannapolis entertained Mrs. Baxter Black (Fran) at Georgio's in Charlotte at 1 p.m. on Saturday. Mrs. Black was presented a white orchid to wear with her beige knit dress. The hostesses gave the bride-elect a crystal pitcher. With Mrs. Black at the luncheon were the groom's daughter, Mrs. Baxter Whicker Shelton and daughter-in-law Mrs. Victor Bradshaw Holland III.
