

Duplin Branch Of NAACP To Join Anniversary Celebration

The Duplin County Branch of the NAACP will join the rest of the nation in celebrating its 75th anniversary with a series of commemorative events in 1984, says Richard Miller, president of the Duplin Branch.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded Feb. 12, 1909 and is to this day the only national civil rights organization with membership in all 50 states.

During the 75-year history, the association has worked unremittingly within the system to achieve equal opportunity and justice for all citizens. In North Carolina, citizens are urged to recognize the many achievements of the NAACP as a standard bearer for justice and join in its diamond jubilee celebration in 1984, Miller said.

On Feb. 12, a birthday rally is scheduled to be held at West Hill Street Baptist Church in Warsaw at 3 p.m. with the Rev. Dr. Emmett Burns of Baltimore, Md. as guest speaker.

Dr. Burns is deputy director of the 8th region with headquarters in Baltimore. The rally will culminate the membership drive for 1984, the official stated. The goals for 1984 are 6,000 on registration books and a membership in the local branch of 2,000.

which no longer meet the commission guidelines may take 66 additional hours and qualify to sit for the broker's exam.

The instructor for the class will be Charles Ingram a lawyer who resides in Warsaw. The course will cost approximately $28 for textbooks and registration fee. For more information, contact Joe Jones at JSTC, 296-1341.

Bodor On Peace Dean's List

Eva Bodor of Kenansville is among the 53 students on the fall semester Dean's List at Peace College in Raleigh.

Eva, a 1983 graduate of James Kenan High School, lives with her guardians, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Jernigan of Route 1, Kenansville.

Telephone's Taxes Reflect Large Investment

Street Richardson, Carolina Telephone's district commercial and marketing manager in Clinton, said that the company's total tax payment within Duplin County, including all city taxes, is $118,763.01.

County and municipal 1983 taxes paid by the company in its 50-county operating area totaled nearly $8 million.

"The taxes reflect Carolina Telephone's extensive investment in buildings and equipment to provide telephone service to some 600,000 customers in Eastern and Piedmont

North Carolina," said Richardson. Carolina Telephone's total tax bill for 1983, including all state and federal taxes, is expected to come to nearly $75 million. This figure does not include more than $9.5 million in 3 percent federal excise tax payments which were billed in 1983 to telephone users by the company.

Real Estate Law At JSTC

The continuing education department of James Sprunt Technical College will offer a 33-hour course in real estate law beginning Feb. 1. The class will meet each Monday and Wednesday night from 6-9 p.m. This is the second course of a three-part comprehensive real estate broker licensing program and is fully approved by the N.C. Real Estate Commission.

Persons who wish to obtain their brokers license should have a current real estate salesman license or should have recently completed an approved salesman course. In certain cases, persons who have previously taken broker's courses
