Jones-Strickland Wed In Candlelight Service

In a candlelight setting, Linda Gayle Strickland of Pink Hill and Thomas Todd Jones of Kinston were united in marriage on Saturday, January 28 at half past six at the Pink Hill Church of God. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Larry Joyner.

The bride and groom entered the church together.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baker of Pink Hill and Mr. Norris Strickland of New Bern.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon (Shorty) Jones of 604 Tyree Road, Kinston.

For her wedding, the bride chose a formal gown fashioned of crepe de chine and bridal illusion. The bodice was Schiffl embroidered illusion with lace flowers applique below the yoke and on the sheer sleeves with each flower surrounded by seed pearls. Irish lace ruffles accented the yoke with a double ruffle stand-up collar, repeated at the waist. The skirt featured a double tier ruffle at the hem which flowed into a chapel train. Her headpiece featured a brimmed hat with lace flowers and seed pearls. The bridal outfit was made by her mother. She carried a silk cascade bouquet of miniature pink roses and white carnations featuring mauve and wine streamers.

Mrs. Sheryl Griffin of Richlands was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Houston and Miss Alicia Futrell of Beulaville and Miss Pam Strickland of Pink Hill, sister of the bride.

The groom chose his father to serve as best man. Ushers were Tony Jones of Kinston, brother of the groom; Bernie Kennedy, cousin of groom, of Southwood; and Terry Marshburn of Kinston.

Mrs. Louise Summerlin served as pianist. Mrs. Kay Blizzard and Lyneve Joyner were vocalists. Miss Donna Strickland of Beulaville, cousin of the bride, presided at the register. Mrs. Sharon Strickland of Beulaville, aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of South Lenoir High School. She is employed by Interstate Insurers of Kinston.

The groom is a 1983 graduate of South Lenoir High School and is employed by his father in the well-drilling business.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 3505 Dahlia Street, Jackson Heights Trailer Park, Kinston.

Reception

A reception was held in the home of the bride following the ceremony. Guests were served wedding cake, ham biscuits, turkey salad sandwiches, homemade cookies, toasted pecans, assorted pickles, mints and punch. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Brownie Simpson, Mrs. Louise Raynor, Mrs. Helen Murphy, Mrs. Cokie Kennedy and Mrs. Denise Murphy. Approximately 75 attended.

Parties

On Jan. 14 Linda and Todd were honored at a miscellaneous shower at the Beulaville Baptist Church given by Irene Cottle, Louise Raynor, Sharon Strickland and Eunice Murphy. Mrs. Lillian Grady and Mrs. Louis Brown decorated the church.

On Jan. 15, Brenda Houston, Alicia Futrell, Debra Strickland and Kristy Ball hosted a lingerie shower at the bride's home.

On Jan. 17, the bridal couple was honored with a shower at the First Pentecostal Church of Kinston by the ladies of the church.

On Jan. 19, Linda and Todd were honored at a household shower at the home of the bride. Mrs. Helen Murphy and Mrs. Eunice Murphy were hostesses.

On Jan. 27, a rehearsal party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kennedy in their home in the Southwood community. At this time the bride and groom presented gifts to their attendants.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. David Batts of Route 2, Beulaville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pam, to Lauren King, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee King of Route 1, Chinquapin. A wedding is planned for March 3 at the Bethel Presbyterian Church.
