Judge Wright Files For Re-Election

District Court Judge Paul Wright has filed for Superior Court Judgeship of Wayne, Lenoir and Greene counties by paying his $503 filing fee in Raleigh with Alex Brock of the State Board of Elections.

In filing, Judge Wright issued this statement:

"Justice for people and their problems in a free country is not just a matter of statistics and numbers. If it were, any bureaucrat with a computer and a rubber stamp could administer it, as they do in some countries without our constitution and jury system.

A good trial judge must not only wear a black robe and have a law degree but most importantly, he must have the intestinal fortitude to stand up, in a polite way, to the most powerful and influential litigants in our society and still rule according to our constitution and our law.

Of course, if I am elected by the good people of Wayne, Lenoir and Green counties, I will continue to stand firm on my belief that criminals repay the victims of their crimes."

WHEN IT COMES TO CREDIT CARDS, MOST BANKS STACK THE DECK.

A lot of banks have recently decided that they must charge you $18 a year just for the privilege of carrying their credit cards. Then, to add insult to injury, many of them have begun charging an annual fee as well on their automatic teller cards.

Some try to soften the blow by offering extensive lines of credit, with an interest rate tied to the bank's "prime." Of course, you have to run up a huge balance on the card before you qualify for that "prime" rate.

But no matter what the deal, almost every bank in the state is charging you $18... just to carry their card.

At First Citizens Bank, we have a very simple alternative.

Our MasterCard/VISA annual fee is just $12 a year. That's a savings of 33% over most of our competitors.

Do you have to sign up for some "special package" to get that savings? No!

Do you have to go to some out-of-state bank to get it? No!

Is there some sort of string attached to this low annual fee? Yes!

But even the "string" is pretty simple: you have to have a good, existing credit history.

And that's all there is to it.

Now we'd be the first to admit that saving $6 a year is perhaps not a big deal to most people. It may not be enough to persuade great bunches of people to pick up and switch banks. But we might quietly suggest that there's more represented here than just a $6 savings on a credit card.

And that's the philosophy of the bank behind it.

A bank that's always looking for new and better ways to treat its customers... not just new ways to extract extra dollars from them.

A bank that demonstrates its concern in ways that deliver value and financial well-being to its customers.

A bank that above all is dedicated to North Carolina and its people... first, last, and always.

That's why, even though First Citizens is far from being the state's largest bank, we have more branches throughout this state than any other. It's also why we're one of the strongest, soundest banks in the entire country.

So, if you find lower credit card fees indicative of a bank that's as concerned with your bottom line as its own, if you get the feeling your big bank has outgrown its need for your business, then just maybe you should come on over to First Citizens.

We give you credit for knowing a stacked deck when you see one.
