Outstanding Young Fireman Clifford Jones of Warsaw, and accepting the Outstanding Young Rescuer on behalf of her son, Murray Jones, Mrs. Jo Jones of Warsaw.

HARDY JOINS HOME HEALTH CARE

Phyllis Hardy has joined Home Health Care as patient care coordinator.

Phyllis Hardy

She is a 1977 graduate of Meredith College in Raleigh where she received a degree in religion. Previous work experience includes social work with Pender and Wayne counties' departments of social services, and Wayne County Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Hardy and her husband, Phillip, live in Goldsboro and attend Rosewood Baptist Church. They have a three-year-old daughter, Allyson.

Mrs. Hardy's responsibilities will include public relations for Home Health Care's five counties — Wayne, Lenoir, Jones, Sampson and Duplin.

Home Health Care is a private, non-profit organization which provides seven-day-a-week, 24-hour a day services in the areas of nursing, nursing aides, physical therapy, speech pathology, occupational therapy, social work, durable medical equipment and medical supplies. For services, call 735-1386.

JK CHAPTER OF FFA HOSTS CONTESTS

On Feb. 16, the James Kenan chapter of the Future Farmers of America hosted the federation parliamentary procedure and public speaking contests.

The parliamentary procedure contest involved six participants on each team representing the officers of a FFA meeting. They performed the opening and closing ceremonies of a meeting and demonstrated selected motions and procedures which were chosen by the judges.

The results were as follows: Wallace-Rose Hill High, first; East Duplin High, second; and North Duplin High, third.

During the public speaking contest, individual contestants presented prepared speeches to two judges. The winners of the public speaking contest were: Henry Cavanaugh of East Duplin, first; second place, Timmy Jones of North Duplin; and third by Tony Westbrook of East Duplin.
