UNITED METHODIST WOMEN CLUSTER MEETING

The Rose Hill United Methodist Church will host Group 4 Cluster event of the Goldsboro District United Methodist Women on Tuesday, March 6.

The theme for 1984 is "A Cruise on UMW Love Visible." The cruise will start at 7:30 p.m. with singing to begin at 7:45.

Coordinators for this event will be Elaine Hall of Kenansville, Ellis Henry Townsend of Wallace and Hester Powell of Teachey.

The United Methodist Churches included in this cluster are: Carlton's Chapel, Charity, Kenansville, Magnolia, Rose Hill, Sarecta, Turkey, Unity, Wallace, Warsaw, Friendship, Providence, Wesley and Woodland.

Every United Methodist Woman is encouraged to attend. This event is a training session for each member.

DOBSON CHAPEL CLASS

The Senior Adult Club of Dobson Chapel Church community met Feb. 14 at the church.

The meeting was opened with devotional service by the pastor, Rev. Ernest L. Johnson, after which the 16 members present enjoyed a covered-dish luncheon in the fellowship hall which was decorated in the Valentine day motif.

The next meeting will be held at the church March 13 at 2 p.m. All senior adults are invited to attend.

RURITAN CLUB VISITS A & A

Three officers of Cape Fear District attended A&A Ruritan Club meeting recently at Ruritan Edgar Eden's farm in Hoke County.

Chip Watson, president, conducted the meeting and recognized each visitor, asking them to take part in the program.

Those present were: District Governor Ivey Harper, Albertson; Zone Governor, W.T. Mercer of Red Springs, and A.T. Johnson, publicity director from Parkton.

Harper expressed his appreciation for all the club was doing as a service club in their community. He also encouraged them to keep active and take advantage of the opportunities that the national office has to offer.

Mercer gave a short report of the national convention that was held in Nashville, Tenn. in January.
