

King-Batts Wed

On Saturday, March 3rd, at four o'clock in the afternoon, Pamela Delores Batts and James Lauren King were united in marriage. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Revs. Georgianna Brabban and William Dotger at the Bethel Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James David Batts of Route 2, Beulaville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee King of Route 1, Chinquapin.

A program of special music was performed by Edgar Wells Jr. of Teachey, Soloists Peannie Albertson and Johnny Pickett of Beulaville sang "Looking Thru the Eyes of Love," "We've Only Just Begun," "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was escorted to the altar

by her father. She wore a formal gown of white English net and silkened organza over peau de soie. It featured a high neckline of lace with front and back yokes of net fashioned with silk Venise and Shiffli laces. The fitted bodice was accented with wedding pearls and long sleeves with traditional bridal buttons. The skirt of English net was edged with lace and a flounced hemline of fine accordion pleating. The train featured four flounced tiers of Shiffli lace. The veil of English net was edged with lace and featured an attached blusher flowing from a Juliet cap of matching applied silk Venise lace and wedding pearls. She carried a bouquet designed and made by her mother.

Miss Beth Sloan of Chinquapin, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Tonya

King Williams of Beulaville, sister of the groom; Gloria Brown Horne of Richlands, Lynn Monroe of Durham and Lita Short of Elizabethtown both former roommates of the bride. Each attendant wore a formal aubergine polyester gown fashioned with a victorian neckline, Venise lace yoke and ruffle with accordian pleated skirt. They carried nosegays designed and fashioned by the bride's mother.

The flowergirl, Monica McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKay, wore an aubergine and white print dress with a white pinafore with eyelet trim. She carried a white wicker basket of flowers. The ringbearer, Phil Thigpen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Thigpen, wore a white suit consisting of eton-style jacket, short pants, ruffled shirt with a bow tie. He carried a satin and lace ring pillow.

The father of the groom served as best man. Groomsmen included Thomas King, brother of the groom; Michael Batts, brother of the bride; Ronnie Williams, brother-in-law of the groom, and Raymond McKay. They were attired in grey tuxedos, white tucked shirts with bow ties. The groom chose a tuxedo like the groomsmen's excepting with tails. They each wore an aubergine colored boutonniere.

The bride's mother chose a formal gown of rose polyester with accordian pleated skirt and cape collar. The groom's mother chose a formal polyester gown in lavender. Both mothers wore orchid corsages with matching ribbons. Glendora Lanier, grandmother of the bride, chose a street-length dress of rose polyester. She was remembered with a corsage of white roses.

The couple spoke their nuptial vows before the church altar accented with two spiral candelabums holding tall lighted tapers and green ferns. They knelt together on a kneeling bench while the wedding prayer was sung.

The wedding was under the direction of Brenda Kay Scott. Attending the register was Molly Lanier.

The bride is a graduate of East Duplin High School, the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, and is employed by Duplin County Social Services. The groom is a graduate of East Duplin High School and is employed as a construction worker. They will make their home on Route 1, Chinquapin.

Reception

A reception was hosted by the bride's parents in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. Two long tables were beautifully done with white floor-length tablecloths trimmed with lace. Several finger foods were served on one, with the wedding cake and punch served from the other. The cake, baked by the mother of the bride, was served by June Sloan and Maxine Cole, aunts of the bride.

Punch was served by Pauline Lanier and Mary King, aunts of the groom. Also assisting with the serving was Pat Riley, Karen Batchelor and Becky Southerland. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lanier Jr. greeted guests at the door.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee King, parents of the groom, hosted a rehearsal dinner Friday night at the Lyman Volunteer Fire Department. The menu consisted of barbecued pork, baked beans, slaw, bread and desserts. The affair was enjoyed by all who attended.

Other Courtesies

A bridal shower was held Feb. 3 at the Lyman Fire Department. The couple received many beautiful and useful gifts. Guests were served cake squares, mints, nuts and punch. Hostesses were Brenda Batts, Julia King, June Sloan, Maxine Cole, Karen Batchelor, Brenda Scott, Kaye Lanier and Becky Southerland. Upon arrival, the bride, her mother, and mother of the groom-to-be were remembered with daisy corsages.

On Feb. 8, bride-elect Pam Batts was honored with a lingerie shower at the home of June and Franklin Sloan. Hostesses were Beth Sloan and Penny Thigpen. Guests were served cake squares, mints, nuts and punch.

Saturday afternoon, Feb. 18, Pam was honored by fellow employees in the A.F.D.C. Department of Social Services.

How To Subtract 2000 From 1040.

It doesn't take much figuring to realize that an Individual Retirement Account from BB&T is one of the best tax write-offs you can have.

You can shelter up to $2,000 in an individual IRA for 1983 if you make your contribution before April 16, 1984. And, while your deposits earn interest at market rates, your interest will accumulate on a tax-deferred basis. At BB&T, you have several plans from which to choose, one of which is sure to meet your needs.

Even if you can't make the maximum contribution for 1983, you can get started with as little as $100 and make additional deposits anytime you wish. Open your IRA at BB&T now. Because Uncle Sam's loss is your gain.
