DCAC Awards Seed Money

A total of $1,450 has been awarded by the Duplin County Arts Council for projects submitted by non-profit organizations to further the arts in the county.

Projects awarded include:

Duplin County 400th Anniversary Committee, project director, Anne Craft, to send student to 400th on Roanoke Island in authentic costume as well as purchase a banner through the state's licensing agent - $75.

Society of Community Affairs, Warsaw, project director, Robert O. Moore, Expo '84, Duplin County local talent show - $210.

Rose Hill-Magnolia Elementary, project director, Beth Brinson Visual artist in classroom to paint, instruct and provide role model -$50.

North Duplin Jr. High, project director, Cecile Rackley - visual artist to teach 7th and 8th grade students - $95.

Chinquapin I, project director, Jeff Landen - to present musical "Sis! Boom! Bah!" a football musical. Money will aid with scripts, royal-ties, flyers, posters, sets and cos-tumes - $265.

Chinquapin II, project director, Cindy Brewer - 2-week workshop involving 228 K-3 students with visual artist for classes. Money to cover artist's salary - $250.

Cultural Arts/PTA, Wallace Elementary, project director, Harriet Farrior - Visual artist, Kitty Mitchell, one-week residency - $165.

North Duplin High School, project director, Brian Hoxie - to produce "Li'l Abner." Money will cover musicians and posters - $240.

North Duplin Elementary, project director, Betty Lou Williams - Visual artist to teach special creative art lesson to every student. Project will include chalk, charcoal, tempera and clay - $100.

The monies come from the N.C. Legislature through the N.C. Arts Council. The Grassroots Arts program allots each county so much per person for distributing and enabling arts among the people of the county.

The DCAC elects to reserve 20% for applicants who design their own projects and whose objectives and goals meet the criteria and requirements of the Grassroots program. A

Gold

Buy your gold

at

Buddy's Jewelry

Nuggets

committee of six from the Board of Directors of the DCAC undertook the selection. Those awarded will complete their projects before June 30, 1984

Hawkins To Present Recital

Carol Hawkins, a Meredith College student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.B. Hawkins of Route 1, Magnolia, will present her senior piano recital at Meredith College on Saturday, March 24, at 8 p.m. at Carswell Concert Hall on the women's college campus.

Miss Hawkins plans to teach music in the public schools at the elementary level after graduation. She is a member of the Student Music Educators National Conference, Honorary Music Fraternity for Women, senior class council and dean's list. She is president of Sigma Alpha lota.

Miss Hawkins will perform works by Mozart, Haydn, Chopin and Scriabin.

Founded in 1891 by N.C. Baptist,-Meredith is the largest four-year liberal arts college for women in the southeastern U.S.

Graduate Recital March

will perform her graduate voice recital on Wednesday, March 21, at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The 8:15 p.m. concert will be held in the Lawrence E. Hart Recital Hall of the Brown Music Building, and is open to the public without charge.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. music major.

Included in her program will be works by George F. Handell, Francis Poulenc, Louis Spohr and Benjamin Britten. Main accompaniment will be provided by Sharon Johnson on piano and harpsichord.

Miss Darden, a soprano, is the Mount Olive College

Darden of Route 2, Faison. At-UNC-G, she is a graduate applied

We have a large selection

Carolina singing at high schools and also at Crabtree Valley Mall in Raleigh.

Performances at the Pentagon in Washington, DC and the Lincoln Center Courtyeard in New York were highlights.

Musical selections included, "On The Sunny Side of the Street" and 'Alexander's Ragtime Band" as well as a variety of popular and sacred songs.

Over $6,500 in donations for the trip were made possible through a benefit dinner held at the College Auditorium, promoted by members of the Mount Olive community.

Choir members also sold gift wrap as part of the fund-raising effort. The choir is under the direction of Carolyn Knox, professor of music.

Buddy's Jewelry

and let our qualified personnel

nugget or cast a special designed nugget for you

of nuggets to choose for your design

design you a free form

1804 W. Cumberland Dunn

Ultio

110 N. Center St

Mount Olive 658-3258

Letter To The To the Editor: spirit of real compassion and treated afternoon. All friends and relatives are invited.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Atkinson of Pink Hili are proud to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Karen, to Sherrill Sumner, son of

Mr. and Mrs. John Ivey Sumner, also of Pink Hill. The wedding will take place at Sarecta United Methodist Church on April 21st at three o'clock in the ourselves

Editor

her with understanding and love.

Unless a person has had to place a loved one in a nursing home, it is hard to understand the feeling of helplessness that a family suffers and many times there is much criticism. However, I want to thank God for a facility like Guardian Care that can furnish care to people we love when it is impossible to do it

I would like to say to anyone who has to place a loved one in a home away from home, Guardian Care in

The family of Leona Boney

By: Mary P. Boney, R.N. Wallace, N.C.

Kenasville is a good place to be.

Our family has recently been through a period of grief and sorrow. Our mother went to be with the Lord Feb. 20, 1983. She died in Guardian Care in Kenansville, N.C.

Approximately 18 months ago, due to circumstances beyond our control, we had to seek a place for our invalid mother to be cared for. We were fortunate to be able to place her in Guardian Care.

During the time she was in Guardian Care she received very good care. I have never been in a nursing home that gives any better level of care. Each person who ministered to our mother showed a

Donna Eloise Darden of Faison

