

PTO Plans Barbecue Supper

Friday, April 13th, the PTO will sponsor a supper from 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. with "eat-in" or "take-out" orders.

The supper will be held in the school cafeteria and includes barbecued pork, slaw, potato salad, hushpuppies and drink for $3 or you may choose barbecued chicken, slaw, potato salad and hushpuppies and drink for $3. If you desire, a combination of pork and chicken for $3.50 is available. Desserts will be available for 50 cents.

Tickets may be purchased from any E.E. Smith student or at the door.

At 8 p.m., the school will present a talent show in the gymnasium with cash prizes for the winners and runners-up. Prizes are being donated by Foxes of Wallace, Theresa's Fashions of Beulaville and Kenansville, the Kenansville Drug Store and The Belle Shoppe, of Kenansville.

Judges will be Ms. Mary Porter of Warsaw, Alexander Leach of Rose Hill and Mae Spicer of Kenansville. An added attraction will be Jack Carr of Magnolia as master of ceremonies. Admission charge for the talent show is $1.

New Business in Pink Hill

Maready Is Among Scholarship Finalists

Andy Maready of Beulaville, a senior at East Duplin High School, is one of 500 finalists for a Jostens Foundation Scholarship. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Maready.

Andy was one of more than 19,000 high school students throughout the United States who applied for the award. The 200 scholarship winners will be announced this spring. Selection of the finalists and winners is based on outstanding achievements in school and community affairs, meaningful work experiences and academic excellence.
