

Rest Stop Benches At The Courthouse

County workers are installing two benches on the Courthouse grounds and have plans to install two more in the near future. The two being installed are on the walkway to the Courthouse. The others will be located off the walkway under the trees. The cement benches were made by Prentice Smith at James Sprunt Technical College and are being set in place by, left to right, Emery Brown, James Williams and Elton Blizzard, and, standing, is Stacy Smith, county maintenance supervisor.

Policies Rapped

President Reagan and the Republican-controlled U.S. Senate have undermined farm programs important to North Carolina and would end the programs if given the change, stated Agriculture Commissioner Jim Graham said Saturday.

"It was the Democratic Party that established every workable, sustaining farm program," Graham told the annual Duplin County Democratic Party Convention.

"I speak particularly of tobacco, peanuts, cotton and the many others
