

Rhodes-Smith Wed

Joy Linnea Smith of Seven Springs and Barney Mangum Rhodes of Beulaville exchanged their wedding vows on Sunday, April 15th at four o'clock in the afternoon in the Outlaw's Bridge Universalist Church. The Reverend John Christensen officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Smith of Surf City and the granddaughter of G. B. Murray of Warsaw and the late Mrs. Mildred Murray, and Mrs. Mae Smith of Seven Springs and the late James Arthur Smith.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Mangum Rhodes of Beulaville. He is the grandson of Mrs. Mamie Thomas of Beulaville and the late Marvin Thomas and the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rhodes.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Billie J. Mercer of Beulaville, cousin of the groom.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a romantic gown of white matted taffeta. The bodice of the gown was designed with a high neckline overlaid in Venise appliques and heavily beaded with bridal pearls. The full bishop sleeves of taffeta fitted at elbow length ending at the wrist in sheer lace, adorned with appliques and dotted with pearls. The silhouette-dropped waistline fell into a chapel train of matted taffeta. The full gathered skirt was edged with lace. The bride chose as a headpiece a derby hat crowned with silk motifs of lace beaded with pearls. An illusion pleat-trimmed the brim of the hat falling to a three-tiered veil of chapel length. She carried a bridal bouquet of white silk roses.

Mrs. Paula Martin of Rocky Mount, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Cindy Smith of Surf City, sister of the bride, and Miss Valerie Tew served as maids of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Molly Lanier of Beulaville, and Mrs. Jimi Rhodes of Beulaville, sister-in-law of the groom. All attendants were dressed in gowns of light blue matted taffeta. They each carried long-stemmed white silk roses.

Flowergirls were Lindsey Holmes and Tracey Chestnutt, cousins of the bride. They were dressed in calf-length white dresses with light blue cummerbunds. They carried white baskets filled with blue and white silk flowers.

Dallas Rhodes served as his son's best man. Ushers were Barry Rhodes and Brian Rhodes of Beulaville, brothers of the groom; Kendall fellowship hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Lois Sutton, Mrs. Margaret Sutton, Mrs. Melba Parker, Mrs. Effie Outlaw, Mrs. Mae Smith, Mrs. Alice Kelly, Mrs. Olivia Smith and Mrs. Lila Mae Price.

The bridal couple was entertained Sunday afternoon, March 25 with a miscellaneous floating shower at Nancy's Grill in Surf City. Hostesses were Mrs. Nancy Hastv, Mrs. Peggy Fussell, Mrs. Angie Hall, Mrs. Peggy Bailey and Mrs. Joyce Brown.

On April 7, the bride and her attendants were entertained at a bridesmaids' luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kornegay. Mrs. Peggy Hobson, Mrs. June Waller, Mrs. Edith Kornegay, Mrs. Alice Stalmach, Mrs. Kay Holmes, Miss Janice Head and Miss Penny James were hostesses. The bride chose this time to present her gifts to her attendants.

Silver Streakers

The Silver Streakers met Monday in the fellowship hall of the Kenansville Baptist Church. Mrs. Lorena Vestal welcomed the 15 present and presided. The program was in charge of the Rev. James Harris of the Kenansville United Methodist Parish. He first told a mountain story entitled "Old Dry Fry" then read a story entitled "The Porcupine whose Names Didn't Matter," closing with a meditation on "Friendship" followed by prayer. The refreshments committee served assorted cookies and sandwiches with punch to those present. The group voted to go back to the usual plan and meet once a month instead of quarterly. So, the next meeting will be on May 21st at Kenansville United Methodist Church.

YOU CAN SAVE $250* ON HEATING AND COOLING YOUR HOME. ALL IT TAKES IS COMMON SENSE.

Savings based on houses with 1,500 square feet. Bigger houses save more.

The way you build a home can make up to a 40% difference in what you pay for heating and cooling. Yet some people tend to think an energy-efficient home has to be an exotic plan out of the 21st Century. The fact is, almost any kind of house can be built to what we call "Common Sense" standards. And, even though it does cost a bit more to build, your energy savings of $20 to $30 a month make up the difference in a hurry.

What's more, chances are, there are also a lot of ways you can save in the home you're in now. So call us or stop by. Whatever your housing situation, we're happy to help out. Because the more you get out of your energy dollar, the more we get out of ours. And that's better for both of us.
