Homecoming

The Beulaville Baptist Church will be having Homecoming on Sunday, Sept. 23. The Rev. Garland L. Foushee, pastor, invites you to come and enjoy the day of worship and fellowship. Rev. Bill Sutton, pastor of Blue Creek Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker. The traditional Harvest Day offering will be taken this year to be used to pay on the activity van which the church purchased in August. There will be lunch in the fellowship hall after the morning message, according to Rev. Foushee.

County Guidance Services

According to Bobbie S. Allen, guidance counselor at North Duplin High School, comprehensive guidance services exist for all students in the Duplin County schools. In an effort to improve these services for students and parents, regular articles will appear announcing test dates and other activities.

As the 1984-85 school year begins, guidance services will be provided by the following staff: Dr. Austin Carter, director; Ester Durham and Judy Hunter, East Duplin High School; Elizabeth Blair and Jessie Best - Wallace-Rose Hill High School and Charity Junior High; Debbie Smith, James Kenan High School; Bobbie Allen, North Duplin High and North Duplin Junior High; Terry Anderson, B.F. Grady, Chinquapin I, Beulaville Elementary; Gloria Morgan, Warsaw Junior High and E.E. Smith Junior High; Johnnie Boyette, job placement coordinator, North Duplin and Wallace-Rose Hill High schools.

Special activities planned for students in upcoming months are as follows?

College Days - James Kenan and North Duplin High Schools; October 11 - East Duplin High School; and October 31 - Wallace Rose Hill High School.
