

POLK COUNTY FAIR, COLUMBUS OCTOBER 10, 11 AND 12.

The Only Paper
Published In Polk County.

POLK COUNTY NEWS

A Live, Clean,
Newspaper
For the Home.

AND THE TRYON BEE

TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1918.

VOL. XXIV NO. 7

$1.50 A YEAR

SALUDA.

Mr. Jack Bull has returned to Greenville after a few days' visit to Russell and Howard Locke.

Mrs. Richard Myers and child have been spending some time at Flat Rock are here for a few weeks.

Mrs. Harris and little son, of Spartanburg have arrived at the Better Baby camp.

Mrs. Broeker and daughter, of Columbia are guests at Miss Wilcox's.

Miss Elizabeth Solomon, of Macon, Ga., is expected at Holly Hill soon.

Mr. Marvin, stationed at the Charleston Navy Yard, visited his mother, Mrs. Marvin and Miss Marvin, last week.

Mrs. Frady and son Sherman of Spartanburg, have arrived at the Better Baby Camp.

Mr. Kesler of Atlanta, Ga., is a guest at Holly Hill.

Miss Williams, of Charleston is a guest at Mrs. H. P. Locke's.

Mrs. Harvey Cole, of Charleston, arrived last week to spend some time at Mrs. H. P. Locke's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cleveland, of Spartanburg and family are up for the summer.

Mrs. Bessie K. Lawton and Mrs. L. O. Lawton are at the Fisher cottage. Miss Florence Ferrebe is spending some time here.

Mrs. Rickman, of Spartanburg, is at the Better Babies Camp.

Miss Jeffries has arrived here to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and family, of Havana, Cuba, are guests at Miss Wilcox's, Holly Hill.

Mrs. Alfred Berkely from New Orleans is a guest at Mrs. H. P. Locke's.

Mrs. Alice Myers and little daughter, Lucile, arrived last week from Spartanburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Julien Ravenel, of Savannah, are occupying a cottage on Columbia heights.

Miss Fannie Hume has returned to Charleston after a two weeks' visit to her brother, Mr. Errington Hume.

Mrs. Sampson and daughter, Virginia, of Charlotte, N. C., are stopping at Holly Hill.

Miss Julia Dill, of Charleston, S. C., is a guest at Holly Hill.

Mr. Howard P. Locke left a few days ago for Washington, D. C., where he has joined his father.

Miss Margaret Simmons, of Rock Hill, is the guest of Mrs. H. P. Locke.

Mrs. Cole and little son, Bostice, of Spartanburg, arrived last week to spend several months.

Miss Finch, District Nurse of Spartanburg, spent last week-end in Saluda.

Mr. Robert Jones has returned to Camp Sevier after spending several days at the Esseola.

The Misses Heriot came up from their winter home in Charleston, S. C., last week and have opened Melrose Inn for the summer season.

Mr. Jack Bull, of Greenville, S. C., is expected this week and will be the guest of Messrs. Russell and Howard Locke.

Miss Louise Lane has returned from Charleston, S. C., after spending the winter with Mrs. Bertolet.

The friends of Mrs. M. P. Moore will be glad to learn that she has heard from Dr. Moore of his safe arrival in France.

Miss Alice Bryson, of Greenville, S. C., has arrived here and will have charge of the Better Baby Camp.

Mr. Thomas Bailey, of Anderson, S. C., who formerly attended the Saluda Seminary, visited friends here last week.

Mrs. Major and family of Anderson S. C., have taken a house on Greenville street for the summer.

Miss Hallie Singleton who has been spending several months at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Cullipher has gone to Columbia for a while.

Mrs. Ben Pace and Miss Lillie Pace spent Thursday in Asheville.

Mrs. James, who has been spending some time at Mrs. Leonard's left on Thursday for Whitesville, Va., to be gone for several months.

Mrs. Steele has returned here with her mother, Mrs. Aiken, and will spend the summer.

Messrs. Russell and Howard Locke have returned home from Piedmont College, Demorest, Ga.

Mrs. Hester and Miss Hester, of Augusta, Ga., are guests of Mrs. Locke's.

Mrs. Baker and children, of Spartanburg, have arrived and will spend some time here.

Sgt. and Mrs. Home and children, came up from Spartanburg and will spend some time here.

Miss Fannie Hume, of Charleston, is visiting her brother, Mr. Errington Hume.

—W. S. S.—

FISHTOP.

A fine rain came Monday to relieve the heat and help the gardens and truck in general.

The rattlers are having a tough time this warm weather keeping out of sight.

Say, Mr. Lynn correspondent, silks are so common here we forgot when the first showed; but we will remember when the first roasting ears show up, which will be only a few days.

E. J. Bradley and several of the young people attended the ordination services at Mount Lebanon, Sunday.

This is War Savings Stamp week, and we hope it will be a success for old Polk.

E. J. and T. W. Bradley dined with John Holbert's family, Sunday.

We now have a saw mill in the cow, on D. C. Pace's farm, and we hope to be able to get lumber now.

COLUMBUS.

The canvassers appointed by the Columbus Township chairman, Mr. C. E. Shore, for the Thrift Stamp campaign, are as follows: Mrs. Nasas Davenport, Lonnie Hutcherson, H. H. Edwards and Misses Minnie Arledge, Lelia Denton; Messrs John Carpenter Martin Hall, S. B. Edwards, J. W. Jack, O. C. Bridges, R. D. McIntyre, John Arledge, H. P. Sharpe (colored) W. M. Rankin, C. W. Williams.

There was a well filled house at the patriotic meeting at the Baptist church, Sunday. Rev. R. M. Pratt, pastor, opened the service and was followed by Dr. Taft and County Chairman, W. T. Lindsey, who made excellent talks in the interest of the coming Thrift Stamp campaign, to an appreciative audience.

A card from Edgar Wm. Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Newman states the fact of his safe arrival "Over There."

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Elliott received letter from their son, Frank, that he sailed May 24th and arrived safely "over seas" 29th. He says it is very cold, making it necessary to wear overcoats.

Mr. Marion Mills visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Mills, Sunday.

Miss Ruth Weaver, who has been visiting Miss Marie Burgess, has left for Macon, Ga., where she intends to enter training as a Red Cross nurse.

The following young folks enjoyed supper at Hemlock Shoals, Saturday evening: Misses Ruth Weaver, Odessa and Thelma Mills, Marie and Hilda Burgess, Oma Reynolds; Messrs John T. Smith and Archie Feagans.

Mrs. F. L. Weaver and children left for Hopewell, Va., to visit her husband, who is in the government employ there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Arledge and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Arledge and family spent Sunday in Columbus.

Mrs. Sampson and daughter, Virginia, of Charlotte, N. C., are stopping at Holly Hill.

Miss Jeffries has arrived here to enter training as a Red Cross nurse.

The Misses Allen, of Rutherfordton college, who have been visiting Misses Leta and Louise McDade, have returned home.

FROM OUR FRIENDS OVER THE COUNTY

Some Items of General Interest Gathered By Our Correspondents From Various Sections of Polk County

HILLCREST.

(Too late for last week.)
Miss Love has gone to Statesville for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, of Asheville, have returned to their home after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Coxé, at Cedar Hill Plantation.

Mrs. Boyd was called to Greensboro, Tuesday, by the death of her nephew.

Some of our Red Crossers, running out of regular work, pitched in and mended a bad place in the road at White Oak bridge, Monday.

Mr. J. M. Brian visited relatives in South Carolina, Sunday.

The Misses Allen, of Rutherfordton college, who have been visiting Misses Leta and Louise McDade, have returned home.

CROSS KEYS.

Rev. Liner, the pastor of Hickory Grove Baptist church, preached a nice interesting sermon at Greens Creek, Sunday p. m.

Little Hazel Pendleton, of Florida, is very sick with malaria fever.

Misses Nora Welborn and Violet Toney have gone to Saluda, N. C., where they have accepted positions for the summer.

A delegation of about twelve young ladies from the Green Street Baptist church, in Spartanburg, came to Greens Creek, Sunday, to organize a Y. W. C. A.

The W. O. W. will have the annual picnic at Cross Keys this 4th of July as usual, though we want to make it a patriotic meeting this time, the best we have ever had. We expect to have a number of speeches on "The Duties of the Times." So don't fail to be there, or you may miss something worth while.

MILL SPRING ROUTE 1.

Several from this section went to Rock Spring Sunday for the purpose of hearing good singing from the different choirs. Only one choir, Rock Spring, and everybody enjoyed hearing them sing very much.

Mr. Aney Womack is on the sick list.

Mr. Bill Jackson and Miss Annie Wilson passed through this section, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fonce Edwards and little son, Max Sanvoy made a quick trip to Spartanburg, S. C., last Saturday.

Hey Mill Spring, where were you Sunday? Going after ice cream freezers, I presume.

Wanted—To know who thought that my cake was so good Sunday as to go to my buggy and eat it.

Mr. Claud Lewis, of Mill Spring was over on Broad river, Sunday afternoon.

Wake up, Sunny View. Let us hear from you.

—W. S. S.—

MILL SPRING ROUTE 2.

Several from here went to Rock Springs, Sunday. All report a nice time.

Rev. C. G. Walker filled his regular appointment at Coopers Gap, Sunday. Mr. Z. T. Searcy was there and had a good singing lesson.

Misses Grace and Oma Gibbs were the pleasant guests of Miss Maggie Jackson Sunday.

Mr. Frank Miller visited on the route Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Coggins have gone to Spartanburg to visit his mother, as she is very sick.

Mr. Andy McGuinn has received his notice to leave for the training camp June 25th.

Mr. Tench Edwards, who is "Somewhere in France" wrote to one of his friends here that he was enjoying life fine and when he came home would bring with him a French girl, Hurrah for him.

Mr. J. T. Corlew, of Pea Ridge, is visiting in this section.

Mr. A. J. Dimsdale heard from his two sons in Kansas City. They have been called to the colors. They were both engineers on the Missouri Pacific railroad. You see what Uncle Sam is doing.

Mr. Wm. Bradley and two daughters from Tryon route 1, attended preaching at Coopers Gap Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Noah Lynch and DeWitt Hilton made a short call at Mr. N. E. Williams' Friday evening.

Mr. Tolbert Odell was a caller at Mr. Burnett's, Sunday.

Miss Annie Wilson is visiting her brother, Mr. Bowen Wilson, at this writing.

Wedding bells are still ringing in this section. Mr. Clyde Wilson and Maude Lynch were married Saturday evening. We wish them a long and happy life.

Good luck to the soldiers.

—W. S. S.—

POPLAR GROVE.

The singing convention at Rock spring, Sunday, was a great success. There was some real good singing and a big dinner was enjoyed.

Messrs. Johnson Davis and Doll Moffet were there from Old Fort, and Mr. W. G. Egerton and daughters, Misses Leona and Eva, from Mill Spring, and Miss Mamie Johnson, of Union Mills.

The little infant daughter of Mrs. Sue Foster passed away to the great beyond, Saturday night, and was buried at Rock Spring, Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. Garner Skipper, Jim Egerton, Noah Lynch and Oden Green were in this section Sunday night.

Messrs. Garner Skipper and Albert Edwards made a business trip to Chimney Rock last week.

Misses Annie Wilson and Dorcas Edwards and Mr. Bill Jackson, on their way back from Rock Spring Sunday afternoon, happened to very bad luck. The horse ran away and hurt Mr. Jackson very bad, but we hope he will soon be over his "scare."

Misses Mamie Johnson and Eva Clark, Messrs. Claud Lewis and Ralph Edwards were out Fording on the Hickory Nut road, Sunday afternoon.

A large crowd of young people from Noodleville were at Rock Spring Sunday. Everybody seemed to be enjoying themselves but Messrs. Charlie England and Johnnie Hodge.

Rev. Wright, the Rock Spring pastor, spent Saturday night at Mr. W. H. Whiteside's.

—W. S. S.—

LYNN.

Too late for last week.)

Rev. John Langley, of South Carolina, will begin a series of meetings at Lynn the third Sunday, June 16th.

Mr. Langley is well known here, and no doubt his meeting will be a success, and it's to be hoped that much good will result of his efforts.

Some early June peaches were sold in Lynn last week. They looked good, tasted good, and sold at good prices.

Get ready for the W. S. S. and Thrift Stamp campaign next week.

Some lumber has recently been placed on the ground, and it has been

A Live, Clean,
Newspaper
For the Home.

Three cheers for the Fair talk in the last week's issue of the NEWS. Let's have a great jubilee of a Fair, when the "Sammies" come marching home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Moore have received word of the safe arrival over seas of their son, Albert Moore.

The Thrift and W. S. S. campaign begins the 23d. Remember when you buy a stamp it's not a donation, it's a loan to the government and a saving to yourself, saying nothing about your patriotism—it's a duty.