Mr. Edwin Lindsey, looking ruddy and vigorous, was this week in town on a two days' leave of absence from Taylor.

We don't hear so much of "Me und Gott" now-a-days. Bill worked the combination for all it was worth, but the firm seems to have failed in business.

Arrangements have been made for the free trans-portation of all school children, and it is hoped that there will be an ample number of autos and other vehicles to transport everybody who de-sires to go. It is hoped that as many as can possibly do so will be at Co-

A CALL TO POLK COUNTY.

Hoover's call to the Red Cross for help for the ten millions imprisoned people in Belgium and France, who are facing suffering, disease and death for lack of clothing, ought to reach every man woman and child in the country.

The Germans have stripped these countries, and in many instances actually stripped the people, leaving old people, delicate people, young child-ren to die of cold, aggravated by hunger.

The cry is for half-worn clothes. You need not mend them the Belgians and French can and will do that for

TRYON, N. C.

You live in this county-you believe in it-you love it-because it's yonr county. Are you willing for it to be listed as a SLACKER County? No! You are not. Then let's get right down to brass tacks and put it on the honor roll. Its quota in War Savings has not been reached; therefore we know you will pledge your full part to help remedy this condition.

Think it Over!

There will be a wind-up war savings drive in this county during September.

Canvassers, acting under authority of the United States Government will call upon you. You must pledge to buy every single War Savings Stamp you can to help save your county-and your boys.

Any further information will be cheerfully given you by Mr. B. L. Ballenger, County Chairman of Polk County War Savings Association.

A house party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Jackson, Misses Martha and Genevieve Jackson, Mrs. Sawver, Miss Sawyer, Mr. Julius Saw-yer, Miss Jane Thompson and Mr. W. H. Stearns, spent the week-end at the Lucy Retter bungalow, at Mimosa.

In his war meeting speech Judge Webb said that next to Asheville, Tryon was the best advertised town in Western North Carolina. Since the arrival of the leper, John Early, Asheville has done its best to make Tryon the worst advertised town in the country.

County Food Administrator, F. P. Bacon, announces the appointment of Mrs. W. B. Stone, Mr. B. L. Ballenger and Mr. B. F. Copeland as the Fair price committee, with Mr. Copeland as chairman. Just as soon as definite instructions are received, this committee will get down to work.

Tryon is becoming quite cityfied in to hasten very fast or very far, on liveryman at the foot of Melrose avenue to take her to the Episcopal church, less than a quarter of a mile away. "How much" she asked, on alighting. "Thirty-five cents," he promptly replied.

The war spider is getting in its work over on East Hill, weaving his "W" which being interpreted stands for "Wa,r" according to the experts. Some see two "W's"which they say means War and Work. In view of the fuel situation it is to be hoped it means Warm Winter. After four years of it, a very stupid spider might prophesy war. Let.some of them do peace work, with a big P.

Mrs. C. S. Corwin, while on her way home lost a large, legal sized envel-ope addressed to Mrs. John Greenwood, Moultrieville, Sullivan's Island, S. C. The envelope contained a pamphlet on Boston School of Reconstruction and Therapy, and clippings from a Boston paper. It is of no value to anybody except Mrs. Greenwood. If the finder will return it to Missildine', Pharmacy they will be conferring quite a favor. .

Messrs. Brown & Wilkie, of Castle Park, Mich., have leased the Pine Hill Cottages, and will operate them as a resort hotel during the coming season. These gentlemen are practical hotel men, and at present operate a summer resort hotel in their town. Being desirous of adding a winter resort to their summer proposition they have taken a lease on Pine Hill. Just what their plans are have not been stated, but a representative of the firm will arrive in Tryon shortly and make known their plans.

Our Hilcrest correspondent gives an account of the marriage of Mr. M. Georgiou and Miss Eliza AAbrams, which occurred at Hillcrest Institute, last Sunday. We have never had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Georgion, but we have Mir. Georgion, and to know him is to admire him. He ..as made many warm friends in Polk county, and we join them in extend-ing congratulations to the "newly weds." Prof. C. B. Stevens, principal of the Saluda Seminary, gave us a pleasant call, Wednesday. He informs us that the Seminary will open on Tuesday, October 1st. Owng to the rebuilding which is taking place there, the public school grades from one to seven will be conducted in the library hall. This will be overcome as soon as the new dormitory for boys, which is now building, is completed. Prof. Stev-ens is a live wire, and is endeavoring to give that ha a school of which she may be proud. He is looking for a good out of town attendance, in fact cotton, anything human hands can possibly turn to account.

Send what you have to Wilkins' store, or make a bundle, for which a committee will call at your house, on Friday morning.

Hoover's call is so convincing in its earnestness that it ought to be read by everyone in this county, indeed in America, which, though it has suffered in its heart, has not yet known what the word means to those in devastated Belgium or stricken France.. -W. S. 8.-

DOUBLEDAY-SMITH

Friday of last week was cold and blustering, friends held their breath for fear of a similar day for the wedding, but Tryon proved that she was to be trusted to take care of a bride whom she had seen grow from infancy, to girlhood, and from girlhood into radiant womanhood. The sun shone, and the wood yielded, as they had some ways. An elderly lady, unable done twenty-five years before for the mother's wedding, the embodied sunfinding herself late Sunday, asked a shine of golden rod and the yellow daisies, the gorgeous purple of the iron weed and the green embroidery of the English ivy.

The church was lovely, the wedding party lovely, the bride the lovlicst of

To the music of the Star Spangled Banner the groom entered the chancel with Lawrence Doubleday as his best man, then two little flower girls came up the aisle, followed by the bride's sister, Margaret, alone, as bridesmaid. The music changed to that of the Wedding March and the bride approached walking by the side of her father.

The beautiful wedding service was performed by Mr. Bowne, who had come down from Asheville, on purpose, then the young people walked back through a church full of admiring friends, to begin their wedded
