"Long May It Wave."

$140,000 is the amount of money Uncle Sam wants to borrow from Polk county. He'll get it.

-W. S. S.-

Polk county has a reputation to maintain. We are not in the habit of falling down on our job, so let's do it now.

-W. S. S.-

After the end of the war when everything else goes downward in price Liberty Bonds will go upward. Don't you want a few?

-W. S. S.-

$140,000 looks like a big lot of money, but that'll only buy fifty meals for Uncle Sam's boys. It takes lots of money to put the Hun out of business, but we'll do it.

-W. S. S.-

Don't forget that Polk county's quota this time is almost four times greater than that of the Third Liberty Loan Drive, so let's lose no time in subscribing the whole amount.

-W. S. S.-

"Hit a man while he's groggy," says Teddy. Sure thing. And now that Germany is in that condition let's paste him hard by oversubscribing the six billions Uncle Sam is asking for.

-W. S. S.-

When our boys come back home what satisfaction it will be for you to be able to say, "Well, lad, I couldn't go to the front, but I did my duty by subscribing liberally to Liberty Bonds."

-W. S. S.-

"We may all be home by Christmas, so prepare the fatted goose," says the Red Cross nurse. Here's hoping, and if one fat goose won't do we'll kill the whole blamed flock if we have to do without a feather bed next winter.

-W. S. S.-

"Give us guns, ammunition and food, and we'll lick the Hun," said the brave young man who addressed the people in Tryon, last week. It takes money to buy all these things. Loar Uncle the money to do it with.

-W. S. S.-

"Tell the mothers over there that we are looking after their boys," is the way the little Red Cross nurse puts it. Now, then let's send word to the nurse that we intend looking after all of them by subscribing to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

-W. S. S.-

Mr. Miller said in his address in Tryon, that all American troops are referred to as Yanks, except the colored troops and they were called Indians. Let it go at that. Makes no difference what you call them, they will be found in the front ranks at the finish.

-W. S. S.-

Everywhere the allies have continued their gains since our last issue.
Bulgaria is out of the running, Turkey almost so, Austria is on her last legs, and the outlook is rosy. Now then dig up that six billions Uncle Sam wants to borrow, and let's put the finishing touches to the whole affair.

-W. S. S.-

"You only have one time to go, and one life to live, and if you do your bit for suffering humanity you can go forward to face your maker feeling that all will be well." That is the way the Red Cross nurses look at it; that's the way our fighting lads look at it; that's the way we parents of these brave souls feel about it. With such lofty ideals who can stand against us? Surely not the Hun.

-W. S. S.-

"These lads are wonderful! Be proud that you are an American.
They are so brave and so loyal, absolutely fearless, and they are going to win this war." That's what the little Red Cross nurse, who is over there with them and sees them fighting says. That's the way we all feel about it over here, and we're going to back up their bullets with our dollars, too. By the way, nurse, when the Red Cross wants a few millions more our pocket books will again be opened.

BUILDING MORALE OF JEWISH TROOPS

Work Of Jewish Welfare Board Producing Splendid Results in Camps and Trenches

No more effective work toward maintaining the highest morale among the American troops has been done by any war organization than by the Jewish Welfare Board, which is engaged in its task of keeping up the lines of communication between the Jewish men in the trenches and visiting camps and the folks back home.

Believing that in the struggle of morale against "kultur" the American army has every advantage that will insure success, the Jewish organization is making its chief issue the stiffening of mental and moral fibre among the soldiers of the Hebrew faith. The call for workers is urgent and rabbin, professional men, journalists, social workers and others are entering the service of the Jewish Welfare Board to make up the 400 workers needed to fill the ranks.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS ANXIOUS FOR BOOKS

American Library Association Providing Reading Matter for Boys On Battle Fronts

Despite the fact that the ocean transportation facilities are being taxed to the utmost, the task of providing reading matter for the boys in the trenches is being handled with an efficiency and dispatch that is surprising even to those who are closely in touch with the situation.

The American Library Association, which has shouldered the responsibility of collecting books, magazines and newspapers by the millions in every city and town throughout the country, is distributing this huge quantity of reading matter to the men in France through the Y. M. C.
A., the Red Cross, the Knights of Columbus and the Salvation Army.

SIX Y. W. C. A. WOMEN ESCAPE FROM RUSSIA

Atlanta, Ga.—The six secretaries sent to Russia a year ago by the Young Women's Christian Association to organize the work of the assistants in Petrograd and other large cities, have escaped from Russia, is the news just received.

The whereabouts of these six women had been unknown for months.
Whether they were alive or dead, had been a mere matter of guess work.

HUT SERVICE PROVIDED FOR MEN IN BRITAIN

Knights of Columbus Establish Havens for Soldiers in England

London.—The Knights of Columbus in Great Britain are making remarkable progress in their efforts to provide facilities that will enable men in the United States forces overseas to enjoy such social entertainment as will help to brighten the routine of military and naval life. Up to the present writing, they have established clubs at the following posts: 268 Edgware Road, London; Market Drayton, Littlehampton, and Inverness. Temporary structures have been erected in many of the larger camps, which are to be replaced shortly by substantial huts.

To date 2,000 secretaries have been called for, and the response is bringing splendid men of high principles and ready sympathies. Each man is over thirty-five years of age and has placed himself unconditionally at the service of the organization, to what ever post of danger or hardship he may be called.
