"Long May It Wave."

Let's get up a county peace jubilee.
—W. S. S.— Well, we celebrated a little soon, but we enjoyed the occasion just the same.
—W. S. S.—
Let us pray that this will be the last war with which civilized man will have to do.
—W. S. S.—
It was reported Tuesday that the Clown Prince had been shot by somebody. Too good to be true.
—W. S. S.—
We say as did Garfield when hit by an assassin's bullet. "God reigns, and the Government at Washington Still Lives."
—W. S. S.—
Now that the United War Work campaign is out of the way let's finish up our War Saving campaign in Polk county.
—W. S. S.—
Remember what Bill said to Minister Gerard? "Remember, I shall not put up with any foolishness out of America after the war." We wonder.
—W. S. S.—
Peace came at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month.
Don't the Bible say something about the fellow who came in at the eleventh hour?
—W. S. S.—
It is a victory of Christianity over infidelity; of civilization over savagery; of democracy over autocracy. Are there any principles of any greater value than these? Are they not worth fighting for?
—W. S. S.—
Don't let Polk county fall down on the War Saving quota. The war is over and our boys will soon be coming home.
Let's not leave anything undone, or do anything that we shall be ashamed of when the boys get back.
—W. S. S.—
Soon "Johnny Will Come Marching Home." Are you ready to look him in the face and tell him you have done your whole duty? Not until we take our full allotment of War Saving Stamps can we do such a thing.
—W. S. S.—
Don't imagine for a minute that all is over. The greatest and most complex questions with which humanity has ever had to deal with are yet to be undertaken. True Germany is defeated, but peace terms have not been arranged, and will not be for several months.
—W. S. S.—
If Bill Hohenzollern, Charley Hapsburg and two other gentlemen whose name and address is unknown, will call on Gen. Foch and pay for this advertisement they can secure four second-hand crowns very reasonable. No further use can be found for them.
—W. S. S.—
History has yet to record any single individual openly defying God as did the German Kaiser, and surviving.
God sometimes allows an accused individual to apparently thrive for a good long while, but He metes out punishment in His own time and manner.

WELD SEVEN WAR
WORK AGENCIES
INTO RELIEF ARMY

Great Organizations Which Are Helping to Keep Up the Morale of Fighting Millions Unite in Campaign for $170,500,000.

With millions of American men on war fronts, in training camps and on the seas and with thousands of American women on foreign soil, all engaged in the stupendous task of making the world safe for democracy, a great duty devolves upon those who remain in the United States,—the duty of sending Home to those who have put Home behind them for the period of the war.
The agencies through which this can be accomplished are joined in the United War Work Campaign.

From being given the cigarette or chocolate bar, with which he stays his hunger in the fury of battle, to the theatrical entertainment or the athletic games, which relax him into normal comfort after weeks of terrific combat, the American fighter is dependent upon the continued efforts of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council and K. of C., the War Camp Community Service, the Jewish Welfare Board, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. To carry on this work the combined welfare organizations are seeking a fund of $170,500,000.

The Y. M. C. A. provides 538 huts in American training camps and more than 800 in the war zone as centres where the fighters can use as clubs, schools, theatres, stores, churches, libraries and writing rooms. More than 7,000 men and women had been sent overseas or approved for overseas work by early autumn and 3,822 were serving in American camps at home.

Y. M. C. A. huts are the canteens of the American Expeditionary Force and are the theatres where the American entertainers, sent over by the "Y," appear. Noted American public men and clergymen speak in the huts. Classes are conducted there. Millions of letters are written there on paper provided free by the "Y." Physical directors of the "Y" teach and spread mass athletics, using material furnished free by the organization.

The Y. W. C. A. does similar work for the thousands of American women in war work overseas—signal corps telephone operators, nurses and French munition workers. It provides cafeterias, rest and recreation centres, entertainment and reading for these women and girls.

The Y. W. C. A.'s outstanding contribution to soldier welfare work in training camps was the establishment of Hostess Houses, where the soldier or sailor may receive his mother, wife, sister or sweetheart in the surroundings and atmosphere of the best homes.

The National Catholic War Council co-ordinates all Catholic welfare work in support of the government and through the K. of C. provides club-houses for our fighters in all American training camps, as well as having seventy-five centres in France and three in England. In their huts the K. of C. provides entertainment, movies, boxing bouts, educational work, religious services, free stationery, reading matter and writing rooms.
In France their rolling canteen accompanies the American army, their secretaries march with the troops, giving away cigarettes, cookies, chocolates, soap and towels.

The K. of C. had 300 workers in France at the beginning of autumn with 450 more passed by the government and 200 others signed up. At the same date they had 468 secretaries in American training camps, 150 buildings, fifty-six more in the course of erection and contracts let for fifty more.

War Camp Community Service functions exclusively in America, its special mission being to "surround the camps with hospitality." In place of leaving the soldier or sailor to the promiscuous companions and diversions formerly his lot, the organization obtains for him the best to be had in communities adjoining camps or through which he passes.

W. C. S. obtains for him invitations to dine, bathe or spend the day in the best homes. It introduces him to the best women and girls at social gatherings, church entertainments theatre parties. It arouses communities to provide concerts, athletic contests and other wholesome diversions for the soldier, and to drive out or discourage the vicious elements which have been historic camp followers.

The Jewish Welfare Board is correlating the strength and purposes of 100,000 Jewish soldiers, sailors and marines with that of the Gentile soldiers. The board teaches the English language, American civics and ideals to thousands of young Jewish men who were inducted into service after only a few years' residence in this country. While safeguarding his religious rites, the board assists in the process of welding the Jewish soldier into the solid American unit and is bridging over the differences between him and the others.

The American Library Association is providing reading matter for every American soldier, sailor, marine and prisoner of war. In addition to gathering and forwarding three million

KATY BOYD GEORGE.
She is rather wee and very winning.
Her eyes repeat the blue on her Y.
W. C. A. uniform that carries the insignia of her service. Her hair, grey for all the shortness of her span of years, frames a face worn, not thin, but fine with a suffering that is more than merely vicarious.

She has lived in the shadows, has stood by while the thorns were pressed down above tortured eyes, has held the hands of those who kneel in their Gethsemane. In a very literal and unrestricted sense, "She hath done what she could" for those who overseas endure what we, sheltered and safe, read about. She is to tell her story in all cities of our Southeastern Department as a National speaker for the Y. W.
C. A. during the United War Work Campaign to raise $250,000,000 during the week of November 11.

At the recent United War Work Convention in Jackson, she was wanted for a speech in the main convention hall while she was busy with committee work elsewhere. Several efforts were made to find her, the program lagged. Presently Gypsy Smith was raised out of a front seat; soon after he returned leading her up the aisle.
At the foot of the rostrum he gathered up with a sweeping gesture R. H.
King, J. M. Clinton, Capt. George S.
Dingle and O. W. Buschgen. As the audience rose to its feet at sight of "Our Katie" the five men, like prankish school boys, made a crescent background for the one small woman, while from five throats—bass, tenor and baritone—rolled the lilting strains of "Katie."

To Katie Boyd George Mississippi women owe the fact that today the name of their grand old commonwealth is on the map of national and international service. Shall all women by concert of effort and sacrifice honor her splendid achievement?

We owe her a special sort of allegiance—a fealty of duty, of tradition and affection. When she speaks one hears again the vibrant voice of her grandfather, J. Z. George, as in legislative halls during trying days of reconstruction, he helped to mould the destiny of our generation. Her forebear's indomitable spirit rings in her voice, emanates from her small supple frame, calls to you from her steady eyes.

Colonel Screws Says Alabama Residents Are Appreciative Of Red Triangle Service To Soldiers There

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. —"In my opinion there is nothing that the Y.
M. C. A. can ask of the people of Alabama which they would not give if they only knew half of the excellent work being done by your organization," writes Col. William P. Screws, Commander 167th Infantry (Old 4th Alabama), in a letter to Borden Burr, who recently returned from France, where he was engaged in War Work for the Young Men's Christian Association. Leaving out expressions of personal praise, at the request of Mr.
Burr, Colonel Screws' letter is as follows:

"On behalf of the officers and enlisted men of the 167th Infantry (formerly the Fourth Alabama Infantry), I wish to thank you for the excellent and valuable work that you have done with us, and with other American troops, since your arrival in France.

"In my opinion too much praise cannot be given the Y. M. C. A. for the excellent work they have done and are now doing for our men over here.
As you know, from personal observation since you have been with us, the "Y" workers are present in time of need and get some of the luxuries of life to the men that they would not otherwise get.

"As the commanding officer of the regiment, I wish to thank you personally for your excellent efforts and your many deeds of valor and kindness shown all through our hard campaigns, in which you were present with us from first to last."

Alabama residents are to be given an opportunity to give during the week of November 11, when $170,500,000 will be raised to continue another year the work of the Y. M. C. A. and other welfare work agencies.
