"Long May It Wave."

HILLCREST.

Mr. Robert Owens and Miss Clara Taylor were married Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lola Bright Falls is teaching at Hillcrest Institute during Mr. Hunter's convalescence.

Mr. Bill Greenway is critically ill. Miss Julia Abrams is staying at Tryon for awhile.

Misses Margaret and Ruth Brian spent the week-end with their aunts, the Misses Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Georgion went to Tryon last week.

Miss Hattie Bridges spent several days in our community last week visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore spent Sunday in Spartanburg county, with Mrs. Moore's brother, who has just come home from the army.

Misses Lucy and Mattie Abrams spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Gray.

Messrs. Lack and Wylie Bridges were down at their old stamping ground, Sandy Plains, Sunday.

A number of young people gathered for a song-fest at Mr. Jolly's Saturday evening.

"The Farmers' Cooperative Association held a very successful meeting at the Greens Creek High School, Saturday afternoon. This Association will doubtless become a force for good in Greens Creek township. Among other things it was decided to organize a boys' Corn Club, a Girls' Canning Club, and to hold a community fair in the fall. The regular time for meeting is the fourth Saturday afternoon, at Greens Creek High School. A special meeting is called for Saturday, March 29th, at 2:30 p. m. All farmers in Greens Creek township invited.

SUNNY VIEW.

Pshaw, we were feeling good over the election. Forty-three registered; eleven voted against the taxes and twenty-one for, and we hear some say, "We did wrong by voting against it." Get right.

at 1 o'clock, p. m. Come Mr. J. R. Sams will be here on next everybody, you are welcome.

Mr. Ralph Edwards was a caller at Mr. N. E. Williams' Sunday.

Several from here attended services at Big Level, Sunday.

Mr. Willie Mills has purchased a new motor car.

Mr. Pitts, of Spartanburg, has purchased a farm near here and moved on to it.

Mr. Ernest Ruff sailed for Brest, France, last week, on a transport which is to bring soldiers of the Rainbow division home.

Mr. T. F. Mills and Mr. Pitts have been busy for the past month building new dwellings.

Some of our soldier boys who are in Germany report that they have been to the ex-Kaiser's castle and have had a wonderful time.

Mr. U. S. Gibbs and family visited at Mr. N. W. Gibbs' Sunday.

Mrs. F. R. Coggins visited Mrs. T. F. Mills and Mrs. Pitts last week.

Mr. Posey Brown, of Spartanburg, is visiting in this section.

Mr. T. P. Brown, and family left last week, for Tennessee, where they have bought a farm.

The 30th Division (Old Hickory) will land on March 29th. We feel sure there will be many hearts made glad, while some will be sad, as two Polk county boys who were in this division were killed on the battle field of Europe, on Sept. 29th, 1918.

Miss Maggie Jackson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Belton Jackson, Sunday.

Miss Lucile Taylor was the guest of Miss Arkansas Jackson, Sunday.

MELVIN HILL.

Mrs. Martha Sanders celebrated her 84th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stacy, last Sunday. There were quite a few of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren at the dinner, and she was the recipient of several presents, first and last.

Elder G. A. Branscom arrived home from Kissimmee, Florida, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Sanders and children of Green River spent Sunday with relatives at Melvin Hill.

Messrs. Joe and Ben Morris the Twin brothers, visited their mother, Mrs. Mary Morris, last Sunday.

Mrs. Nat Edwards has gone to Rutherfordton hospital for treatment. Mr. Boyd Cole, of Green River, visited friends here, last Sunday.

Farmers are getting in earnest about turning land now, as there has been a week of good weather.

Mrs. Branscom is still quite poorly, but we hope she will soon be around again.

Mr. John Shields, of Green River, visited friends here last Sunday.

All good wishes to the NEWS family.

FISHTOP.

Mrs. Clara Feagan and little daughter, Cleo, were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Pace Saturday evening, from 6 to 9.

There was a singing at Mountain Valley church, Sunday evening.

Someone set out fire on Laurel Mountain, Saturday, and burned over the entire mountain, doing considerable damage, especially timber, burning over 100 acres before it was checked, finally Sunday evening. A few people in this county need a lesson taught them, and the sooner the better.

If there is anybody who wants to work, he can get a job here, as the farmers are so badly behind they would be glad to welcome a few laborers to their fold.

The Fishtop school closed, Saturday March 22nd, with an entertaining program by the four graduates of the school. The school room was beautifully decorated with ivy, spruce and ferns. The chairs of the graduating class were beautifully draped with the class colors, gold and black.

Following is the program, "Here we gather every morning;" welcome address, Elma Newman; song, "We are climbing Learning Hill;" class history, Avaree Jones; song "We've gone out from this course of study;" last will and testament by Estella Pace; song, "Twas a long way to graduation, but now we're right there;" class prophecy, Eva Pace; song, "Flow, gently, Green river;" farewell address, Estella Pace; song "Good-bye," sung and played by the teacher. An interesting talk was then given by Mr. Thos. E. Pace, after which the pupils reassembled to their homes, feeling that there were not sufficient funds to continue the school longer. The committee and patrons of the school are well pleased with the services of the teacher, who did not have a fair chance to show her ability on account of much sickness among the students.

MORTGAGEE'S NOTICE OF SALE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in that mortgage deed executed to me by D. F. Bengé and wife, S. H. Bengé, on August 14th, 1907, to secure a debt therein described, which said mortgage deed is duly registered in book 5, page 134, record of Mortgages for Polk county; and after making certain small payments default was made in the payment of said indebtedness, the last payment having been made about day of 1914, and default continued after demand, now, for the purpose of making the remainder of said indebtedness, I will on MARCH 31st 1919,

at 12 o'clock, noon, at the court house door in Columbus, Polk county, N. C., sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, all the following described tract of land, being the same described and conveyed by said mortgage deed, and bounded as follows:

Adjoining the lands of W. M. Justice, J. R. Williams and others. Beginning on a stone on the north side of road, and running thence east with said road 45 steps to a stake, on the bank of the road; thence north to W. M. Justice's and J. R. Williams' white oak corner on the top of the ridge; thence back with W. M. Justice's line to the beginning; and being known as the Bengé Home place. This Feb. 24th, 1919.
