"Long May It Wave."

It takes longer to agree on peace terms than it did to win the war.

What good will it do a man in a "State Wide" state if the brewers are allowed to make light beers?

Snow fell in Texas last Tuesday. But you can never tell what Texas is liable to do in the matter of weather.

"The Watch on the Rhine" must have been in a state of "innocuous desuetude" when the Renish republic was established.

Why not put all the alcohol that beef contains, in the foam, for nobody can use that, anyway.

Jim Reed is opposed to woman suffrage. That ought to make every decent man in the United States favor it.

The man who wants to roll up a fortune must first learn to roll up his sleeves.—Forest City Courier. And forget to roll up cigarettes.

An Aiken, S. C., newspaper says the reason President Wilson is in favor of light wines, it will not interfere with the popular combination of "wine women and song."

Senator Borah opposes woman suffrage. Yet he says he is a candidate for the Vice Presidency on the Republican ticket. Back to the tall timber for you, Mr. Borah.

A cruel remark is this one: "Mr. Bryan aims to dry up everything in the world—except language." The Sun should be more respectful—Index Greenwood, S. C.

After the barrooms in some of the big cities close a lot of people are going to have money which they simply will not know how to spend satisfactorily.—Greensboro News.

A newspaper published in Aiken, S. C., says that county could exist with a wall built around it. But they haven't the material with which to build the wall, we presume.

An article in the Hendersonville Hustler is headed "How to Eat Fish." How to eat fish isn't what troubles people in these parts, neighbor. It's getting the fish, that bothers.

Hendersonville boasts of a young man who took lessons in music by mail. That's nothing, neighbor. Polk county has a man who is attempting to perfect a seedless watermelon.

Speaking of any section of the world being able to exist with a wall built around it reminds us that China undertook that caper once. Can you imagine anything deader than China?

Just as some United States Senator gets ready to criticize the League of Nations, word is received that it has been amended, and all the time is wasted that the Senator devoted getting up his speech.

South Carolina farmers are buying iron safes to deposit their Liberty Bonds in, says a salesman in the Hendersonville Hustler. The farmers of South Carolina are evidently not as good business men as the farmers of Polk county. Here they deposit both their money and bonds in our local banks, as recent statements of these institutions show.

Asheville is determined to afford amusement for her summer crowds. Fred Seeley, proprietor of the Grove Park Inn was refused space in the Citizen a few days ago, although he offered to pay for it, and it is now reported that Seeley may start another morning newspaper in Asheville. If he does he will make things hum, for Mr. Seeley knows the newspaper game, having formerly owned the Atlanta Georgian.

The new editor of the Hendersonville Hustler is some hustler. Since taking charge of that paper he has located a million dollar sugar manufacturing plant; tunneled the Blue Ridge mountains; erected a few skyscrapers, and now has discovered that Henderson county has a breed of chickens that lays eggs with two yolks and another completely formed egg, all within the same shell. And the young man has been in charge of the Hustler only a few weeks at that.

The recent bomb outrages demonstrates the fact that America is facing a dangerous condition and that it is high time all patriots throw aside politics for awhile and go man hunting for the band of murderous traitors seeking to organize a reign of terror in the United States. The time for selecting party platforms and candidates that appeal to an element in this country that has never been of any benefit to it should cease. In the future all genuine Americans should refuse to vote for any man who does not stand firmly upon a good solid American platform.

NOTICE OF THANKS.

Miss Margaret Warner wishes to thank most warmly the many friends who sent flowers and thoughts to Round Hill, last week, for her dear father.

Astonished Daddy.

June is having some difficulty in settling upon the proper title for her father. The other day she was playing with one of his collars when she tore it. Just then she heard him coming upstairs, and rushing to the top step called in distressful tones: "Oh, daddy, I have tore my hubble's collar!"

Undoubted Proof.

An eminent pianist was about to give a recital in a large hall. As the audience was filling in a man staggered up to the door and presented a ticket. "You cannot go in," said the official in charge; "you are not in a fit condition." "Didn't I pay for my ticket?" asked the man. "Isn't it in order?" "It's all right," was the reply, "but you—you are all wrong—you are intoxicated!" "Intoxicated? Of course I'm intoxicated! If I wasn't do you think I would come to a piano recital?"
