

TRYON

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Taft were in Asheville, Monday.
Miss Alva Jackson visited relatives in Asheville last week.
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Buckius are spending a few days in Asheville.
W. Y. Wilkins attended to business matters in Spartanburg yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Orr were in Spartanburg on business yesterday.
W. T. Lindsey transacted business in Spartanburg and Greenville Wednesday.
Mr. Oliver Andrews attended to business matters in Asheville, last Monday.
Mr. Gerald Stone is spending a short time in Philadelphia and other eastern points.
Mrs. Strone has gone to Cleveland and other points in northern Ohio, for the summer.
Mr. J. C. Davis, of Aboline neighborhood, was attending to business in Tryon, Saturday.
Mr. A. F. Corbin is in West Raleigh attending the summer school at the A. & M. college.
Two of the Misses Pettigrew have been called to South Carolina by the illness of a relative.
Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Lewis, of Wilmington, are visiting the mother of the latter, Mrs. Rhodes.
Mrs. Bancroft, of Ohio is building a cottage on Whitney avenue, just beyond the home of Mrs. Norman.
Miss Mary Lindsey has returned home from Atlanta, Ga., where she has been attending a conservatory of music.

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Jones are attending the B. Y. P. U. convention in Asheville, this week, as delegates from the Baptist church of Columbus.

Owing to the increased cost of everything used by barbers, the price of hair cutting, on and after June 15th will be 35 cents at Tryon barber shops.

The fire of Tuesday night put our telephone out of commission, so doubtless there are many news items we have been unable to get on that account.

"When do you take your vacation?" is the slogan of the day. So far as the force of the NEWS is concerned, that word does not appear in their dictionary.

Asheville newspapers and ministers are having quite a discussion over Sunday observance. A great many arguments can be said both pro and con on this subject.

A great many ladies of Tryon are mourning the loss of wearing apparel on account of the fire. Many were under course of "construction" in the millinery store that burned.

Mr. LeCompte, of Iowa, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill. He is Mrs. Hill's father. Mr. LeCompte has many friends in Tryon who are always glad to see him. He will be here for some time.

The town commissioners at their last regular meeting passed resolutions thanking the members of the civic committee for the work they have done in beautifying the town, also to others who have been of such aid in the campaign of cleaning up Tryon.

Wilkins & Co., have leased the building formerly occupied by the Carolina Hardware Co., and are filling it with goods as fast as they can be secured. Mr. Wilkins requests us to announce his firm is ready for business, and will soon have a complete stock.

Dr. Queen, of Atlanta, will preach at the Congregational church, next Sunday morning. Dr. Queen has twice before preached at the Congregational church, and those who heard him will be glad to have the opportunity of doing so again. Those who have not heard him have missed a treat.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Hazard, of Charleston and New York, with their young son, are occupying one of the Searles cottages for the summer. Mr. Hazard was a partner of Mr. Harold Erskine, in New York, but now has undertaken mill architecture for the Southern mills, using Tryon for his headquarters.

Lee Thompson, of White Oak township, called on us Tuesday. He was returning from Greenville, S. C., where he went with Mr. Joe Hall, who has accepted a position there. Mr. Thompson tells us that the tubercular hospital at Greenville has over 250 soldiers as inmates, and the number rapidly increasing as the boys return from overseas service.

The Mazyck house so long occupied by Mrs. Thurston, has been bought by Mrs. Mazyck's daughter, Mrs. F. C. Poppe, who intends making her home in Tryon. Mrs. Poppe will soon be joined by her son and daughter, now in boarding school. Mrs. Thurston will spend the summer in Saluda, while Miss Thurston is in Massachusetts. Both of them will return in the autumn.

The election contest proceedings were begun, at Columbus, last Monday, and several of our citizens were called there on that account. Referee Self arrived in Tryon, Monday morning and proceeded to Columbus. As a large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed on both sides it promises to be a long drawn out affair. As each side is represented by five attorneys these gentlemen will have to make a bluff at earning their money, at all events.

Construction work on the road between Tryon and Saluda is under headway. An advertisement in the Asheville newspapers calls for labor on road construction in Polk county. It is sincerely to be hoped that enough men can be secured to do some work between Tryon and Saluda before the summer is over. Last winter it was a sight not to be forgotten to see one enterprising man, with an almost impassable mud hole within the corporate limits of Tryon, and pulling the automobiles through this gentlemen in charge of the work can be prevailed upon to start another gang below Tryon, then we will have some hopes.
