

St. Helena the Good.
St. Helena according to a colonial report, appears to have no real criminals. Stone-throwing by night was for a short period the most serious offense. Last year no person was committed for trial; 104 out of 210 summary cases came under the education, road tax, and poor law ordinances and 77 trivial cases were dealt with by the police without bringing them to court. Three instances of flogging are recorded, under the juvenile smoking ordinance.

Additional Tryon News.

"A Word of Cheer for Troubled Times" will be the theme at the Congregational church Sunday morning. You are cordially invited to attend the services of worship at eleven, and the Bible Study at ten.

Misses Norwood Baker and Ruth Crosby, of Spartanburg, S. C., and Miss Christene Singleton, of Greenwood, S. C., and Mrs. M. C. Baker of Flat Rock, N. C., are guests of Misses Emilie May and Elizabeth Hester.

Mrs. E. Rhodes and Miss Sallie Streadwick will leave for Atlanta, Sunday to purchase a stock of Ladies ready-to-wear, dress goods and notions. They expect to be ready for business upon their return from market.

Dr. Juanita I. Lea, of Detroit, arrived in Tryon last week, where she will make her future home. She will be located in the LeBeau cottage until she can build upon her property at Valhalla. Her many Tryon friends will be pleased to learn that she is to become a permanent resident of our town.

W. H. Wakefield, M. D., of Charlotte, and his assistant, R. F. Wakefield, will be at Mill Spring at Hotel, on Saturday, Aug. 16. The doctor limits his practice to the medical and surgical treatment of eye, ear, nose and throat diseases and fitting of glasses. Ask your family physician about consulting Dr. Wakefield.

A pleasant affair of the week took place Monday evening, when Tryon's young people motored out to the "Mimosa" to bowl and dance. The hours included much merry conversation besides the consuming of iced melons, which were served later in the evening, bringing the pleasant affair to an agreeable end. The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Pringle, Miss Hazzard, Miss Pierson, Miss Strate, Mrs. Kane, Mrs. Mosley, Mr. Pierson and Mr. Sims.

Rev. A. S. Caldwell, a well known minister of the Presbyterian church, has located in Tryon and will supply the churches at Sandy Plains and Columbus. As soon as suitable arrangements can be made the congregation at Lynn will cooperate with the several Presbyterian families in and around Tryon and hold regular services in Tryon. During a recent visit to his old home the High Point N. C., News had the following item about Mr. Caldwell. "Rev. A. S. Caldwell and wife arrived in the city this week and are with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Caldwell, Jr., on Parkway. Mr. Caldwell was for several years pastor of the First Presbyterian church here and endeared himself not only to his congregation but to numerous other friends who appreciated his splendid work and high type of citizenship."

COLUMBUS HIGH SCHOOL

OPENS AUGUST 18th.

The Stearns State High School, Columbus, N. C., begins its fall term, August 18th. This is the only State High School in Polk county and it has all the credits and recognition, both by the State Educational authorities and the higher educational institutions, that is granted to any high school in the state. There are no tuition fees and no incidental expenses like most schools have, but the only necessary expenses are for board and books.

We ask the citizens of Polk county who have boys and girls whom they expect to place in high school this year to carefully consider what their home school, at Columbus, offers in comparison with other schools of like character from the standpoint of convenience to your home, equipment, course of study and possibilities after graduation. Find out from former graduates of the school whether or not it does what it claims to do, put the school to any intelligent test, and we feel sure that you will decide to patronize the home school.

The faculty this year is the strongest that the school has ever had. Miss McNich, of last year's faculty, graduate of South Carolina University, her old place, Miss Bertha Prendergast, Boston University, Boston, Mass., has a place in the High School; Miss Failor, Miami University, Ohio, will have charge of Music and Domestic Science. The elementary school will have Mrs. Jack in the Primary department and Miss Boone in the Grammar Grade department. Any special information regarding the school can be had by addressing E. W. S. Cobb, Principal, Columbus, N. C.

NOTICE.

Having qualified as administratrix of J. J. Byers, deceased, late of Polk county, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the 16th day of August, 1920, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

This August 15th, 1919.
MRS. J. R. SMITH, Administratrix.

FOR SALE:—About thirty-five acres of land, located at Pearidge, 3 miles from Mill Spring, known as the J. J. Byers place. Good land suitable for growing corn, cotton and wheat. Apply to Mrs. J. R. Smith, Columbus N. C. 15-2w

TEACHERS MUST BE EXAMINED.

Every teacher in North Carolina schools this year must hold a certificate from a reputable physician stating that he or she has not an open or active infectious stage of tuberculosis or any other contagious disease. This is in accordance with an act of the general assembly of 1919.

The law provides that the teacher must secure such certificate each year before assuming his or her duties, the examination to be made without charge by the county physician. The law is entitled "an act to prevent public school teachers from infecting their pupils with tuberculosis."

Animal's Strong Instinct.

Some animals are remarkable, indeed, for the wonderful development of love and devotion they possess and show toward men. They are so acute in the sense of their affections that they seem to perceive the feelings of their master in advance of his expressions. Masters of dumb animals have often been heard to declare that their animals were quicker to detect in them a spirit of anger than were their fellow men.

In Piccadilly.

Piccadilly is believed to have got its name from pickadillies or pickadillies, a variety of turnover collar. A tailor named Higgins, who had made a fortune selling these articles of apparel, built a home in that particular part of London in 1630 and called it Piccadilly hall, hence the name Piccadilly.

Brightening a Room.

The yellow gleam of brass always adds light to any dark nook and used with dark furniture, is most artistic. A pair of brass candlesticks on the mantel, andirons before an open fire, or even a brass jardiniere for ferns, are all especially attractive in a dark room.

Each Seeks His Kind.
Thrust an Emerson into any Concord, and his pungent presence will penetrate the entire region. Soon all who come within the radius of his life respond to his presence as flowers and trees respond with boughs, brilliant and fragrant, to the sunshine. After a little, each Emerson stands girt about with Hawthornes, Whittiers, Emersons and Lowells.—Newell Dwight Hillis.

Real Pioneer.
One of the first white men and in all probability the first British subject to make his abode in territory comprised within the boundaries of the province of New Brunswick, Canada, was John Gyles, who was carried from the southern British colonies to the wilderness of the valley of the St. John river by marauding bands of Indians.

Home-Made Martyr.
John G. says, in a long letter of apology, that nobody understands him in this world. If you take up that book, then nobody can be expected to understand you. Don't try to understand yourself out a martyr. Put your burden into life and carry a burden for another. You'll soon find then that you are understood and appreciated in exchange.
