LAUGH A BIT

The wisest men that er'r you ken
Have never deemed it treason,
To rest a bit—and jest a bit,
And balance up their reason;
To laugh a bit—and chaff a bit,
And joke a bit in season.
—Exchange.

In a little western town lived a widow who kept her family together by doing family washings. One week because of illness the money gave out with which to buy provisions. The widow mailed a post card to a son, who was supposed to be working in a nearby city, with the following message: "Dear Howell" unless you send us some money by Monday we will have to go to the poor house. Mother" A reply was received by the mother as follows: "Dear Mother: Wait until Wednesday, I will be home and we will all go together."

The boy's sense of humor was well developed but the mother could hardly appreciate so much humor under the trying circumstances. Had the father of the boy saved his money instead of frittering it away it would be a different story to tell. I have six honest serving men;

They taught me all I knew;
Their names are WHAT and WHY
and When
And HOW and WHERE and WHO.
—Kipling.

WHAT and WHY: To induce you to open an account with this Polk County Bank, because we have every facility to offer you and know you will be pleased for we have pleased over a thousand customers in the two years we have been in business.

WHEN: Today for we are both losing if your account is not at this bank. You lose our prompt and efficient service and we lose your deposit, which we must have if we are to continue our growth. "Delays are dangerous"—open your account today.

HOW and WHERE and WHO: Either come in person, or send in your deposit by mail. Uncle Sam will deliver a letter to us almost the same day you post it and we will send you a receipt by return mail together with check books and other supplies. The WHO is YOU, reader and act on the suggestion so that we may demonstrate to you that we have a bank of service.

Extract from a soldier letter, repeated by a censor who had a sense of humor:

Somewhere in France.
Dear Ma: I have saved a little money, and when I get back home I'am goin' to buy me two mules, and name one of 'em Corporal and the other one Sergeant; then I'm goin' to lick hell out o' both of 'em."—Exchange.

I'VE GOT IT!

I was just like a lot of other "boobs" who never paid any attention to what sort of oil was being put in the crank case, but the "GREEN FLAG" advertising got me to thinking there must be something in it and to "watch your step" when you say, "give me a quart of oil"—That's what I had been saying all along—but now—Oh, NEVER AGAIN—do I say it that way—NIX—I say, "give me a quart of "GREEN FLAG" Oil! and then I know "I've Got It"—got the right sort of oil, the best oil, and the right body for my motor.

Now I know what the real joy of driving a car really means. "GREEN FLAG" Oil has sure waked me up to just what a vital thing the right sort of motor oil IS in the SERVICE, POWER and COMFORT of driving a car.

There are several live dealers in this county who sell "GREEN FLAG" Motor Oil, well known, reliable folks; and I would drive twenty miles out of my way to get "GREEN FLAG" if it were necessary to do so.
Their names are listed in this little "burst of enthusiasm."
